MERRY CHRISTMAS

Beyond the Glitter - God

CHRISTMAS MEDITATION
by
The Rev. Victor Brown, Minister
The First Presbyterian Church
Arlington Heights

What a strange mixture of sight and sound surrounds the Christmas season. No other time of the year provides such contrasts. Sacred and secular are crowded together in one tremendous splurge.

There is the sight of the Wise Men presenting gifts, "gold, frankincencse, and myrrh," precious gifts given in worship and adoration. But that scene is dwarfed by seeing everywhere jewelry, clothing, toys, appliances, recommended as gifts that husbands and wives may give each other, or Santa may give the children, or a friend give a friend. And we become so absorbed with these, the nature and attitude of the Wise Men is pushed into the background.

Or, portrayed on page and stage are the "shepherds in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared unto them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them . . . and the angel said: 'Be not afraid, for behold I bring you good news . . . And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men of good will!' " But how many of the people encountered in the hustle and push of Christmas reflect either this peace or good will? Do you? Are we not more likely to be distraught and short-tempered? Long waiting lines, delayed deliveries, mauled merchandise, inability to find the appropriate gifts shut out the vision of the shepherds who were surrounded by the glory of God and rob us of the peace proclaimed to them.

Carolers sing: "Hark, the herald angels sing, glory to the new born king" the announcer reports the number of shopping days remaining. We sing: "Joy to the world, the Lord is come," but immediately forget it as we hear the newscasts, for there is no indication of joy there.

This mixture of sight and sound covers Christmas with color and tinsel and wrappings which make it difficult to see the Gift, or to be caught up in the quiet and beauty and mystery of what took place then and can happen now. Pleasant as are these outward expressions of Christmas, they tend to obscure the really significant facts. Christmas is not just another holiday . . . it is a Holy-day. It is an event and an experience.

The event was the birth of Christ, God's gift to the world—His gift to you and me. This gift, like all others, is valued because it reminds us of the affection of the Giver. God's desire is always to do us good, to make life more livable, more lovable, filling us to overflowing with blessings of joy, peace, power. Through all the ages God has sought ways to express His loving concern by lifting life's burdens, opening before us opportunities, providing us with abilities and capacities to enjoy and improve life. God's gift of His Son reminds us that He is still God, His is still the only way, and all life is in His hands.

But Christmas is meant also to be an experience. It is the experience that so frequently becomes lost in the season's shuffle. In addition to reminding us of the giver, a gift is valuable to the extent that it meets a need. That is why we often have difficulty selecting gifts — either we are not aware of the person's needs, or else he seems to have everything. But when God gave His Gift He knew exactly what we needed. God saw His people floundering in the dark. They were unsteady, uncertain of the way, selfish, relying on their own cleverness, planning their own pursuits, pursuing their own plans. The result was confusion, weariness, despair, helplessness, frustration, stunted lives, division and strife among men and nations.

It was because of man's need that God sent Jesus Christ, to show us His way, to help us walk in it, and to do for us the things we are incapable of doing for ourselves. That was what God meant when He said to Joseph: "You shall call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins." He came to save us from our pettiness, our littleness and selfishness, from all the things that separate us from Him and that hold us back and keep us less than the best.

Since Christ came to meet our needs, Christmas can have no real meaning for us until we recognize our need, until we acknowledge that we cannot go it alone, until we confess our inadequacies. Then, in our need, we recognize God's gift for what He is, and we receive Him in humility and great joy.

The meaning and purpose and peace of life is at stake. Do not allow absorption with gifts to obscure THE GIFT, nor the rush and glitter deprive you of a personal soul-searching, soul-nourishing experience.

"O Holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in;
be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
our Lord Emmanuel!"

Rolling Meadows Petitions for 'City'

Includes Race Track, Arlington Crest, Palatine Industrial Area

First steps were taken Wednesday to incorporate a new city in the area of Rolling Meadows in Palatine township. A petition was filed in County Court by Louis Ancel, attorney for the incorporation.

Principal settlement in the new community will be the Rolling Meadows subdivision developed by Kimball Hill & Associates. More than 3000 citizens now live in the three and one-half mile area bounded by Wilke road, Central road, Hicks road, and the Northwest highway. The new city will lie southeast of the village of Palatine and directly west of Arlington Heights. An election is expected to be held January 22 on the question of incorporation.

STEPS TOWARD incorporation culminate the sensational growth of the subdivision wherein ground was broken for the first time in 1953. It is expected that the population of the community will exceed more than 5,000 by July of next year. Most of these will live in the present Hill subdivisions. Included in the incorporation will be Arlington Park race track, Arlington Crest and possible industrial areas along Northwest hwy., between Hicks and Rohlwing rds.

Ancel, a well known municipal attorney, in filing the petition, pointed out that Rolling Meadows has many advantages which should make it a model community. "It is well planned, it is centrally located and has a growing population which is interested in establishing a good community." Associated with Ancel in the incorporation is John A. Doyle, an attorney and resident of Rolling Meadows. The community, which now consists of more than 700 families was designed by William Dean, planner for Kimball Hill and Associates. It includes a new school built by the developer for Consolidated School District 15 and will also contain a shopping center. It is expected that ground will be broken for the shopping center early in the spring.

If the election for incorporation is successful January 22, an election for officers will be held within 60 days.

UNDER THE LAWS of the State of Illinois, it is impossible to incorporate any area lying closer than 1½ miles to another incorporated area in any manner other than as a city. For this reason Rolling Meadows must be incorporated as a city because of its proximity to the village of Arlington Heights. Another requirement for the incorporation of a city under state laws is that the population must exceed 1,000 persons. Rolling Meadows has almost 1,000 registered voters, assuring a population well in excess of the minimum requirements.

The question of incorporation has been under study for a considerable period of time by a special committee of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association. The committee has been diligently conferring with authorities on municipal law. This investigation developed the facts that incorporation would present many benefits to Rolling Meadows residents with but a slight increase in taxes — estimated to be less than $1 per month. These benefits include primarily local police protection as well as the securing of state motor fuel tax funds for street maintenance. Another advantage of incorporation as a city is the right to acquire and operate the local water system.

A general meeting to further explain to Rolling Meadows residents the advantages and problems involved has been scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 9, at Arlington Heights high school. At that time printed brochures presenting detailed information on the question of incorporation will be given to all those in attendance for their study and information.

Pass New Code of Ordinances

The new code of ordinances for the village of Arlington Heights was passed by the village board Tuesday night.

All ordinances will become effective immediately, with the exception of the section dealing with business licenses. In this regard the board passed a resolution suspending collection of all local business license fees for 1955 until the board meets with the businessmen January 25.

However, any businessman desiring to pay his license under the new rate at this time, may do so. If any reduction is made in the fee following the proposed meeting, the money will be refunded to the purchaser.

Still On 'Vacation'

The Christmas message by Reverend C. V. Brown, pastor of Arlington Heights Presbyterian church, takes the place of the editor's column this week.

The editor is so joyous over the repair to his offending eye, that he thought there was no better way to observe this Christmas.

Village Starts Negotiations For First Municipal Parking Lot

Authorize 12-Hour On-Street Parking Meters for Commuters

The first village-owned off-street parking lot may become a reality in 1955.

Arlington Heights village board voted Tuesday night to have the village clerk write letters to property owners of 99 feet along S. Dunton ave. and 132 feet along S. Vail ave. advising them the village is having their properties appraised and as soon as they receive the result of the appraisal an offer to buy the property will be made.

Dunton ave. property being considered is the north half of vacated Robinson street and all of lot 4. Vail ave. property includes all of lot 5 and all of the vacated Robinson street.

IF THIS entire parcel can be acquired it will be paid for out of parking meter funds; no general bond issue will be necessary to pay for the land. It is estimated that approximately 150 autos could be parked in the area.

Immediately south of this property, fronting on Dunton, a 10-store shopping area is to be erected. Plans include off-street parking facilities for 40 more cars.

Plans to acquire this off-street parking area is one of the first projects of the newly formed parking committee, which consists of all members of the board and Village President Albert W. Goedke.

Earlier Tuesday night the committee approved immediate removal of parking meter heads on meters in areas which are to be changed to 12 hour parking zones.

This will allow commuters to park in the area immediately, instead of waiting until the present hour meters can be changed over to 12-hour units. Meters to be changed are located on N. State, between Miner and Eastman sts; south side of Miner, between State and Evergreen sts.; east side of S. State, from South to Sigwalt sts., and the south side of Davis, west of the municipal garage.

A CHECK MADE December 10 showed 182 cars parked outside the metered zones, exclusive of the railroad parking lots. Ninety-seven of these were out-of-town vehicles. Approximately 85 parking spaces for commuters will be gained by changing the meters.

As soon as the new meter heads are installed giving the additional commuter parking facilities, 2-hour time limit parking signs will be erected in the following areas:

East side of S. Evergreen, Dunton and Vail aves., from Sigwalt to South st.; west side of Vail ave., from Fremont to St. James st.; west side of Dunton and Evergreen, from Fremont to Eastman st.; both sides of N. State rd., from Fremont to Eastman; and south side of St. James, from Vail to Evergreen.

The parking committee also approved the erection of 90-minute parking signs between the hours of 6 p.m. and 8 a.m. along the north side of Northwest hwy., between Dunton and Evergreen.

New Additions To Be Ready In January

Work on additions to the New South school and the Ridge school in Arlington Heights has progressed to a point where it is certain both units can be occupied in January.

STUDENTS attending Ridge school will be on full sessions when they return to school January 3. To date they have been having double sessions.

New South school students, who are also on double sessions, will continue this program until January 25, when it is expected they can move into their new addition.

Just a few small jobs remain to be done at Ridge school, which should be completed during the Christmas holidays.

At present the New South addition has heat in and the plastering will be finished soon. Major work remaining is installation of millwork, laying of asphalt tile floors, attaching plumbing fixtures and hanging light fixtures. The contractors feel sure they can be ready on the date mentioned.

THOUGH SCHOOL officials cannot be sure of this date beyond a doubt, they are planning on it and suggest parents and pupils make their plans for regular sessions on January 25.

Children at both schools will bring home detailed instructions regarding the new school hours, their new classroom assignments and new bus schedules, before the new hours go into effect.

Safe Holiday!

Fire Chief Elroy Winkelman asks all readers to please take every precaution with their holiday decoration this year in order to prevent fires and make everyone's holiday a cheerful one.

Closed Friday

Paddock Publication's shop will be closed all day Friday, while the office will remain open until noon.

Suggest Annexation to Curb Septic Tank Development

Not only the village of Arlington Heights is concerned about the development of Arlington Heights Park Manor subdivision, which lies just outside the village limits. A letter this week, which appears in the Fence Post, was received from a resident of the subdivision, who fears such a development will devaluate properties already improved in the area.

The letter points out that existing owners, carrying mortgages on their homes, have a right to protect their property values. Mortgage agreements between mortgagee and mortgagor clearly state such parties shall not knowingly permit or allow any act that would devalue any such mortgagees property or properties, lest such mortgage become invalid.

ARLINGTON Heights village attorney, Hugo J. Thal, said he received a reply this week from the state health department regarding a letter he had sent them informing them of the development which will mean a mass use of septic tanks on 50 foot lots. The letter stated the state department could do nothing at this time unless an unsanitary condition were in existance.

Dr. John Hall, head of the Cook county health department, who also received a copy of the letter, informed Paddock Publications Wednesday, it had no authority to intervene in what might become a health hazard.

Harmon Stanton, writer of the Fence Post letter, appeared before the Arlington Heights village board Tuesday night to learn what support residents in the area could expect from the village. The village has no jurisdiction over the property, but could lend its moral support.

THE ONLY solution the board could see at this time was for the residents now residing in Arlington Heights Park Manor subdivision to take immediate action to have the entire area annexed to the village, in order that the village can control the type of houses and public improvements going into the area. It was intimated the Scarsdale, Laurinwood and Scarsdale Estates Property Owners' associations, which border the Park Manor subdivision, would be willing to cooperate in any way they could to prevent the proposed development, which would mean septic tanks and prefab housing in many instances.

If necessary, the village will even go so far as to get an injunction or restraining order against the county zoning and building committees, which issue permits for homes in the county area, to prevent any further building until the sanitation problem can be solved.

Though the county now requires 10,000 square feet for each lot needing a septic tank, this particular parcel was platted prior to the passing of the new restriction and, therefore, is not bound by it.

MR. LEMPKE, county zoning inspector, checked Tuesday on one prefab home being built in the subdivision and subsequently notified the building contractor that he has violated the building code.

Residents having any other pertinent information regarding this development should call A. J. Mullins, STate 2-8712.

Prefab home being erected next door to Harmon Stanton, Arlington Heights Park Manor subdivision, just southeast of the village limits of Arlington, north of Central road. This is one of many such homes contemplated for the area, which is platted in 50 foot lots and has no improvements, necessitating the use of septic tanks.

Edwin Johnson New Village Trustee

Edwin L. Johnson was unanimously appointed Tuesday night to fill the vacancy on the Arlington Heights village board created by the resignation of Charles Rehfeldt.

Johnson was selected by the special committee on recommendation to the board.

The new trustee is an attorney and has resided in Arlington almost four years. He took his oath of office following the board meeting, though he sat in on the Tuesday evening session to get acclimated to his new position.

Members of the special committee and the organizations they represented are as follows:

Edward H. Christen, Lions club; Mrs. C. F. Hamburg Jr., Junior Woman's club; Robert Koeppen, VFW; Mrs. F. R. Schwanke, Nurses' club; Mrs. Nat Burfeind, Arlington Heights Woman's club; George Schneberger, Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Robert Muench, Kiwanis club; and Mrs. A. G. Manthos, Newcomers' club.

Mrs. Schwanke of the Nurses' club was responsible for submitting the name of Trustee Johnson for consideration.

Neighborhood Doings

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson recently attended the Christmas party for the Accounting department of the International Harvester co. in the form of a dinner dance at the Mohawk Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. William Busch were guests at a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Parker in Skokie, prior to the Arlington Heights Junior Women's club Annual Holly dance held at River Forest Country club last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ryden are having an especially nice Christmas this year. Their son, David, is home for the holidays from Colorado A. & M. in Fort Collins; and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman are also home for the holidays. The Hoffmans have been stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, and after the first of the year will sail for Heidelburg, Germany, on a new assignment.

Christmas Eve in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Leu will be a very pleasant one this year inasmuch as the largest part of Mrs. Leu's family will be on hand to spend part of the holidays together. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Egeland and their son, Rickey, of St. Louis, and Mr. R. Egeland and Miss H. Egeland, both of Chicago will be there. In addition to that side of the family, Mr. Leu's parents and grandparents of Des Plaines will also be on hand to join in the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sider are planning a family Christmas dinner. Mr. Sider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Sider, Mr. Linke and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ryan of Skokie will all be together that day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bates will spend Christmas Eve with their family in their home. Mr. and Mrs. R. Blohm and family of Edison Park; Mr .and Mrs. Wm. Blohm and family of Franklin Park; and Mrs. Bates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Blohm of Chicago will be present.

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wood are hosts to Mr. Wood's aunt, Miss Mildred Wood, formerly of Massachusetts, now residing in Chicago, for the holidays.

Mrs. L. Stockings' sister, Priscilla Parson, visited with her sister and family for a few days a short time ago. Mrs. Stockings anticipates another few days visit with her sister before she returns to the University of Arkansas after the holidays.

Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Colvin have just returned home after spending a month's vacation in Florida. While there, they took in most of the state, including St. Augustine, Daytonna Beach, Sarasota, Coral Gable and Key West.

Birthdays

Ann Ewing celebrated her tenth birthday last Wednesday evening with a group of 24 children, which included some school friends and neighborhood friends. The children had dessert and watched Disneyland.

Charlotte Kreusch is celebrating her sixth birthday today. In honor of this occasion, the family had an outing downtown last week and looked at all the Christmas sights and saw the movie "White Christmas."

More Sidelights

Happy Holiday

Two local residents hit the limelight in Waterloo, Ia., recently, when a picture of them appeared on a WMT-TV newscast December 10. Mrs. Floyd Burns went to Waterloo to spend several days with her husband, who has been there on business. As she arrived at the station a photographer snapped a picture of her and her husband.

It seems Burns had been chatting with a group of businessmen about locations for Tastee-Freez ice cream stores, when the discussion got around to photography, which is Burns' hobby. It was soon wagered that Burns couldn't contact a photographer in time to get a picture of his wife who was coming in by train. With only 20 minutes to make arrangements, Burns managed to get hold of a Waterloo photographer, who took the picture.

Burns is president of Tastee-Freez of Iowa, and at present is supervising the erection of four new stores in Waterloo.

Joan Tews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tews, is giving a Christmas party at her home, 935 N. Kennicott, from 8 to 12 p.m. Sunday. Miss Tews has invited friends from Chicago, also Hank Raupp and Carol Siewenie. Refreshments will be served.

The M. W. Prellbergs and the W. G. Frankes enjoyed dinner and the ice show at the Conrad Hilton hotel Monday evening.

Peace On Earth

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Goodell and their four children who have been staying with the Walter Edelblutes while their home was being completed, will be moving to 231 Eastern ave., Clarendon Hills, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Middel recently returned from a visit in Nassau and Florida.

Mrs. Peter Atwood has returned from her Fort Lauderdale home to spend the Christmas holidays in Arlington Heights.

Season's Happiness

Mr. and Mrs. George Glow will entertain the C. A. Snyder family from Lombard, Christmas day.

Guests at the Willard Meyer home Christmas day will be Mr. Meyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer, and Mrs. Meyer's mother, Mrs. Peter Leis. Also Mr. and Mrs. Philip Leis and Frank and Peter Leis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carr entertained a group of neighbors at a pre-Christmas party Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Dibble visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Reeves at Crete on Sunday for a pre-Christmas dinner. The Rev. J. B. Dibble of Batavia is spending the holidays with his son's family.

Yule Greetings

Guests at the Warren Fellingham home Christmas day will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fellingham and their daughters, Carol and Wendy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crane will enjoy Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George Hauff.

The Chester Moores, and their children, Sally, Leigh, and Katie, will travel to Rockford to spend Christmas with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maynard.

Mrs. George Orth, George Jr., Mrs. Carol Edwards, and her daughter, Cindy, will drive to Milwaukee for Christmas with Mrs. Orth's father, Ernest Hoernlien, and her sister, Mrs. Ellen Sprecher.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sass and Sharon and Donnie will have Christmas dinner with Mr. Sass' parents in Chicago. The senior Mrs. Sass celebrates her birthday Christmas day.

Joyous Noel

A pre-holiday party for her neighbors was given by Mrs. Arthur Zanda Tuesday evening. Her guests included Mrs. Donald Russell, Mrs. A. Janda, Mrs. E. Wellnitz, Mrs. W. Busch, Mrs. Dean Currier and Mrs. Robert Abbott.

The Walter Edelblute family will be Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson of Lake Bluff.

The Christmas party of the past matron club of the OES was held at the home of Miss Celia Hausam Dec. 17. There was an exchange of gifts and refreshments were served.

Guest Speaker

H. L. Slichenmyer of Arlington Heights will attend the National Businessmen's - Teachers' association meeting in the Grand Ballroom of the Palmer house December 29.

Slichenmyer and Elvin S. Eyster, chairman of the department of Business Education of Indiana university, will discuss the topic "Fundamental concepts of basic business, including provisions for individual differences."

United Lutherans To Hold Vesper Choral Service Christmas Eve

The festival of Christmas will be celebrated by the United Lutheran church of Arlington Heights with a vesper choral service Christmas Eve at 7:30 o'clock in the Dryden school, Dryden and Rockwell sts. The Rev. George Hoog, pastor, will conduct the service, and will preach upon the theme, "Jesus is Born."

Because Sunday school classes have been meeting for only three Sundays and time has not permitted the preparation of a Christmas program for the school, the Christmas eve vesper service has been planned as a family celebration. At the close of the service each child will be presented with a gift from the Sunday school.

Participating in the program will be the recently- formed choir of the church, who will sing under the direction of Mrs. Hoog. Included in the group of traditional Christmas carols which they will sing are, "A Christmas Song (Cantique de Noel)", with Mrs. R. B. Woodruff as contralto soloist, "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," and "Angels We Have Heard on High."

Sunday, Dec. 26, Pastor Hoog will preach on the theme, "The Grace of God was upon Jesus," at the 10:45 worship service. Sunday school classes for all age groups will be in session at 9:30 a.m.

A special service observing the beginning of the new year has been scheduled for New Year's eve at 7:30 o'clock in Dryden school.

Further information about any of these services may be secured by calling Pastor Hoog at Vanderbilt 4-0013 or Clearbrook 3-6298.

With The Blue Birds

Arlington Hts. blue bird groups helped the Christmas season off to a flying start. Having finished wrapping and delivering their "Good Fellows" gits, they completed and wrapped gifts for their parents and made decorations for their trees and homes.

The Honey Bears group held its Christmas meeting at Mrs. Auer's home with a Christmas party and all the trimmings. Singing, games, and folk dancing comprised the morning get-together. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served by Susan Bahr, Mrs. Crommelin, and Mrs. Auer. The girls received blue bird pencils as table favors.

The Helping Pixies group, meeting at Mrs. Shomburg's home, had a tree-trimming party, using the ornaments they had made at previous meetings. The girls sang carols while trimming the Christmas tree, and then gathered at the gaily decorated table for refreshments. Table favors were colorful blue bird pencils. After treats of ice cream and cookies served by Chris Carle, Mrs. Schomburg and Mrs. Nicol, the girls played games and enjoyed folk dancing. Many thanks go to Hill-Behan Lumber company for the tree donated to the group.

Tuesday was certainly a big day for Blue Birds, for after a day of partying, the two groups met at the Arlington Heights Chicago and North Western depot at 5:15 p.m. to serenade their daddies and other commuters with Christmas carols. The favorite Christmas melody was, of course, "Jingle Bells" for this song gave the girls a chance to shake the jingle bell bracelets that adorned their wrists.

Auto Skids Into Tree; Driver Hurt

Franz L. Trenkwald, 59, of Barrington route 3, was injured last week when his car skidded out of control and crashed into a tree at Brinker and Otis roads near Barrington. Trenkwald was brought to Sherman hospital where he was x-rayed to determine if he has any fractures.

State police reported Trenkwald was driving west on Otis road when his car hit a patch of ice and left the highway. It then swerved back to the opposite side and crashed into the tree.

Girl Scout News

Brownie troop 260 celebrated its first troop birthday and Christmas party December 14. During the program each girl received her one year pendant. The group sang and also gave their own arrangement of a band which included drums, banjos and tambourines they had made.

Each brownie made and presented her mother with a Christmas tree centerpiece and Santa Claus arrived with gifts for each girl.

The troop committee served refreshments of decorated Christmas cup cakes, brownie cut out cookies, coffee and punch.

Girls of intermediate girl scout troop 20 were hostesses to troop 19 at a Christmas party Monday evening in the south room of the field house. Troop 20 gave a skit called the "Singing Christmas Tree" after which grab bag gifts were exchanged. Games and refreshments were also enjoyed.

For their Christmas project, girls of troop 20 sent toys to the children of Cook County children's hospital.

Christmas To Be Observed With Three Services At St. John

Three services will mark the observance of Christmas at St. John Evangelical and Reformed church, N. Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights. Christmas eve at 7:30 p.m., there will be a church school service and program. Pastor J. G. Meiners will conduct the opening vesper service and the church school program, under the general direction of superintendent Myron G. Kuhlman, will include the pageant "Peace To Earth." The expanded children's choir will be directed by Miss Roberta Landmeier assisted by Mrs. George Moudry. After the service, all children will receive gifts from the Sunday school.

Saturday the historic date for the celebration of Christmas will be marked by a festival service with the liturgy of holy communion. The Chancel choir will sing, "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming" by Prteaorius. The Misses Delilah Kost and Roberta Landmeier will sing the duet "O Holy Night."

Sunday the church school for primary through youth departments will meet at 9:15 a.m. The kindergarten and nursery departments will meet during the 10:30 worship service at which time also there will be recognition of those home for the holidays.

May the old fashioned Christmas spirit of peace and joy embrace your home this glorious holiday season. And may the richest gifts—health, happiness and good will come to you and your dear ones.

Proper Equipment

While out hunting recently a conversation between your editor and a friend of his who had brought his dog along got yours truly to thinking about the subject of folks who will have new puppies in their homes around Christmas time and also who will no doubt be prospects for every dog gimic that is made.

In buying things for your dog keep in mind that although you may pay a few cents more for a good leash and collar, for an example, you will be more than repaid in having something that will stand up under constant wear and tear. Also keep before you the fact that right now that pup may be rather small and the women think he is "cute" but the day will not be far off when he will be a lot larger and with more weight to tug and pull. Result—that chain leash may be just fine now, however, when the dog gets older and decides to lunge at something with you on the other end of the chain and you suddenly find half a yard of skin off your hands from the chain just because you forgot to wear gloves, keep in mind why a good leather leash is much better to buy.

Also heavy weight food and water pans will last much longer and of course be sure to have each as a separate item. Some dogs delight in carrying food and water pans all over the place and light weight ones just can't take it.

Proper equipment means also proper food and real kindness to a dog consists in giving him a diet containing the necessary proteins, vitamins, fats and carbohydrates, in quantity suitable to his size and breed.

This is really simpler than it sounds, since American industry has come up with a variety of ready-to-feed products that completely meet the canine's nutritional requirements.

"Quiet — Please"

The subject of new dogs in the house brings to mind that you can teach your dog to stay alone and like it, and thus avoid complaints from neighbors about your howling dog.

You can teach a new pup to stay alone by putting him in a separate room in the house for awhile each day. In this way he grows accustomed to staying alone at times. You may have to get in a command of "quiet" once in a while, however, the general idea will not take too long.

Teaching an older dog to stay alone must be done while you are right there to carry out corrections. Shut him in another room with his favorite toy, bone or what-have-you and also with the bed he sleeps in or blanket he uses etc. The minute he barks give a sharp command "quiet" or "stop that." The next time give a sharp rap on the door repeating the command. If he persists, go in, take him by the collar and after a few cuffs under the chin repeat the command.

To train him to be quiet while you're out, trick him into thinking you've left the house by slamming the front door. Then quietly tiptoe back and wait. The minute he barks, rap on the door of the room he is in and give your command.

It will take a lot of patience to teach the confirmed howler to be quiet alone and many an hour may be spent waiting outside doors to catch your dog by surprise. But, it's worth the time to know that you can leave your dog without him making a disturbance.

Barks & Bays

They have another one of those songs out for Christmas — goes by the title of "Bow-Wow Wants a Boy for Christmas," and speaking of the subject, "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" from your editor.

County Zoning Board To Hold Two Hearings

Two public hearings will be held January 7 by the Cook County Zoning Board of Appeals for the purpose of rezoning two parcels of land to B-1 Business classification.

The first hearing will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Arlington Heights village hall. The property involved is located on the northwest corner of Rand rd. and Buffalo Grove rd. in Wheeling township. Present classification is F (Farming) district.

Following this hearing the zoning board will go to the Palatine village hall, at 8:30 p.m., for a hearing on the rezoning of approximately ¾ of an acre, located on the north side of Northwest hwy., approximately ¼ mile north of Wilke rd., in Palatine township. Present classification of the property is R-4 Residence.

All persons interested should attend these hearings and they will be given an opportunity to be heard.

Social Science Club Entertains Orphans At Christmas Party

Members of the Social Science club of Arlington Heights high school entertained two orphans from Lake Zurich at their recent Christmas party.

Charles Herrick, senior, escorted the boy about the building during the day. Natalie Glover and Carol Parke, seniors, performed the same service for the girl.

Main feature of the party was the presentation of a large number of gifts for the children at the home. These gifts were both new and used toys which the club collected from students and wrapped for presentation to the children.

Today, Thursday, members will meet at the Lutheran Old People's home to sing carols for residents and present a collection of ornaments for Christmas decoration.

At Monday night's presentation of "A Christmas Carol" at Prospect Heights school, Mrs. Phyllis Wilson, music teacher, wore a corsage which was a gift from the Wilson school faculty in appreciation of her direction of the school's presentation last Thursday. The gym at Prospect Heights school had standing room only when the Wilson children presented the play.

Wednesday morning, Santa visited Wilson school through the courtesy of Anne's dairy store, State and Rand rds. Appropriate gifts were given to each boy and girl from the first through eighth grades.

Boy scout troop 34 is again meeting regularly each Wednesday. August Meyer of Virginia Terrace, formerly assistant scoutmaster, is now acting scoutmaster. He announces there will be no meeting during Christmas vacations, but meetings will resume at 7:30 January 5 at the school. The goal of the troop is at least one outing a month, including a performance of "Cinerama" at Eitel's Palace theatre in Chicago in February.

Nancy McCarty Weds John Doty December 18

A yule setting of white-sprayed Christmas trees and white poinsettia plants decorated First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights last Saturday for the candlelight marriage of Miss Nancy Jane McCarty, daughter of Mrs. Austin Russell McCarty, Arlington Heights, and John Marion Doty, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stoner of Charleston, Ill. Christmas wreaths hung in the windows and evergreen boughs tied with white satin bows marked the pews.

The eight o'clock service was performed by the Rev. C. Victor Brown, pastor of the church. Mrs. Earl Auge was organist and accompanied the bride's college friend, Miss Marika Adam, who sang, "Beloved It Is Morn," "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her uncle, John G. Reynolds of Chicago, the bride wore an ivory satin princess gown fashioned with long sleeves, a row of fagoting to outline the yoke and a long train. Her finger tip veil was held to her head with a headpiece matching her gown and she carried a bouquet of calla lilies with variegated holly and gold Christmas beads.

Miss Lucy McCarty served as her sister's maid of honor and Miss Ila Miller and Miss Dolores Goldthwaite, both of Arlington Heights, served as bridesmaids. All attendants wore red antique silk princess gowns fashioned similar to the bride's gown, but with short sleeves. They carried white carnations with red Christmas ornaments, silver bells and variegated holly.

Ralph Synnestvedt Jr. of Glenview was best man to the groom and ushers were John McCabe of Champaign and George Najim of Springfield.

After the ceremony, a reception for 200 guests was held at the Pantry in Park Ridge. Mrs. McCarty received wearing a grey chiffon dress, mauve accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The groom's mother received in a navy dress, black accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

After a 3-week wedding trip to Florida, the newly-wedded couple will reside in an apartment in Arlington Heights. Both Mr. Doty and his bride will have positions in Chicago, she with Arthur Andersen & Company, accountants, and he with the Continental Illinois Bank. The new Mrs. Doty was graduated from the University of Illinois where her bridegroom also attended. Community Camera

Jean Inglis Becomes Bride of Robert Milne

Among last Saturday's brides was Miss Jean Frances Inglis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Joseph Inglis, Inverness Countryside, Palatine, who became the birde of Ens. Robert Paton Milne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Paton Milne of Racine. The couple was united in marriage by the Rev. Sheldon B. Foote, pastor of St. Philip church in Palatine in a 4:30 o'clock ceremony in St. Mark Episcopal church, Evanston.

Large white chrysanthemums, pom pons and candles decorated the church and Dr. Frank Cookson rendered the nuptial selections at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white dull-luster satin gown fashioned with long full skirt ending in a chapel train. The wide neckline of the gown was made with a cowl collar covered with imported lace. Her elbow-length veil was of illusion netting and was attached to a white velvet headband covered with sequins. She carried camellias and stephanotis attached to a white prayer book.

Miss Dianne Fawcett, Princeton, served the bride as maid of honor wearing a gown of green taffeta made in princess lines with bouffant skirt. She carried white carnations with a center of red roses.

Gowned identically to the maid of honor were the bridesmaids, Miss Susan Childs of Monroe, Mich., and Miss Nancy Besst of Canton, Ohio. Seven-year-old Joan Rezner of Mount Prospect, served as flower girl wearing a white nylon dress with bouffant skirt and green taffeta sash. She carried a miniature bouquet of white carnations with red roses in the center.

Bruce Broker of Racine, was best man to the groom and ushers were Leslie Robert Inglis, brother of the bride, Stoddard May of Barrington and Ronald Green of Columbus, Ohio.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Inglis wore a brown taffeta dress with matching hat and a brown orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a light blue satin dress with matching hat and a lavendar orchid corsage.

The Georgian hotel, Evanston, was the scene of the wedding reception at which 150 guests greeted the newlyweds. Besides the groom's parents, other out-of-town guests were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Milne, and his aunt, Miss Dorothy Milne of Toronto, Ontario and the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Baskin of Cleveland, formerly of Mount Prospect.

Mr. Milne and his bride are honeymooning on the west coast and will reside in Coronado, Cal. The groom, who is stationed in San Diego, is a graduate of Northwestern university where he was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity. The new Mrs. Milne is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority at Northwestern where she completed two years' study.

Favorites For Flavor

The college crowd is home for the holidays and perhaps a skating or tobogganing party is on the agenda. Everyone gathers afterward for some singing and dancing. Hot punch hits the spot after hours in the cold December air.

Hot Buttered Cranberry Punch is also a fitting reward for strolling carolers, as well as an appropriate beverage to serve to holiday callers.

Wreathe the punch bowl with slices of fruit cake, Christmas cookies or Norwegian Christmas bread. Or prepare an angel food cake, cut into wedges and frost all sides of each slice. Decorate with cherry poinsettias with angelica leaves and arrange around punch bowl.

Hot Buttered Cranberry Punch

¾ cup brown sugar, packed
1 cup water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground allspice
¾ teaspoon ground cloves
2 cans jellied cranberry sauce
3 cups water
1 quart canned pineapple juice
Butter or margaraine
Cinnamon sticks

Day before if desired: In large saucepan, bring to boil sugar, 1 cup water, salt, spices. In kettle, crush cranberry sauce with fork. Add three cups water; with egg beater, beat until smooth. Add pineapple juice, hot syrup. Simmer about five minutes.

At party time: Heat punch over low heat. Ladle into mugs and pour into punch bowl. Add dots of butter. Service with cinnamon-stick stirrers. Makes 2½ quarts.

Marjorie Bierwirth And Jerry Johnson Wed

In a double ring ceremony that took place in St. Mark Lutheran church, Mount Prospect, December 18, Miss Marjorie Bierwirth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bierwirth, 300 S. Louis, Mount Prospect, became the bride of Jerry Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson Sr. of Corwith, Iowa.

Pastor H. J. Rasmussen officiated at the three o'clock ceremony during which Mr. Bierwirth gave his daughter in marriage. Louis Langpop served as organist and soloist was Victor Severin who sang, "Oh Perfect Day" and "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee." White mums and palms decorated the altar and holly tied with white satin bows marked the pews.

For her marriage, the bride chose a chantilly lace and nylon tulle gown over white satin made with pearl trim and a chapel sweep train. A lace cap, also trimmed with pearls, held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis with a white orchid.

Miss Nancy Dallia served as the bride's maid of honor. Her gown was of emerald green taffeta fashioned princess style with waltz-length skirt and round neckline. She wore a crescent of garnette roses and holly in her hair and carried a cascade of garnette and happiness roses with variegated holly.

Mrs. Richard Bernthal of Itasca and Mrs. Robert Nickelson of Ames, Iowa, served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to Miss Dallia's gown and their bouquets were of garnette and happiness roses with plain holly.

John Scheid of Austin, Minn. was best man and David Johnson Jr., brother of the groom, and Robert Nickelson of Ames, were the ushers.

Buffet supper was served to 100 guests at Mount Prospect country club where Mrs. Johnson received in a black lace dress over Copenhagen blue. Her accessories were champagne and her corsage was of pink camellias. A special telephone line was installed from the church to the Resurrection hospital where the bride's mother is recuperating from injuries sustained in a fall. She was able to hear the entire ceremony over a loudspeaker. The installation was made by Allen Shoup as a gift to the bride and groom. Miss Marguerite Smith, aunt of the bride, who makes her home with the Bierwirths, served as her neice's hostess at the reception.

Mr. Johnson and his bride are honeymooning in Kentucky and after December 26 will be residing at 128 Sumner ave., Ames, Iowa, where the groom is attending Iowa State college in the school of mechanical engineering. The new Mrs. Johnson also attended Iowa State college and until recently was employed at the American National Bank and Trust Co., Chicago. (Community Camera

Presenting The Younger Generation

Inseparable Sisters

Two sisters who love to play together are Deborah and Kathleen Dill, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dill of 526 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

Six-year-old Deborah has brown hair and blue eyes. She has an artistic bent and enjoys coloring and drawing. She also likes to play with her dolls and read.

Outdoors this young miss has fun roller skating, and she is hoping that Santa will bring her a new two-wheeler bicycle for Christmas.

Deborah attends first grade at the New South school. Each day her little sister, Kathleen, watches for her to come home.

Blonde hair and blue eyes describe Kathleen's coloring. She enjoys playing with her dolls, doll clothes and buggy, and also likes to color.

Both girls love to attend Sunday school at the First Methodist church.

Their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Townsend Allen and Mrs. Frederick Dill, all of Camden, New Jersey.

Smiling Brothers

Pictured next are Walter, Steven and Thomas Oetzell, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen Oetzell of 901 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

Five-year-old Walter has red hair and hazel eyes. He attends kindergarten at the New South school and Sunday school at Faith Lutheran church.

Walter is beginning to learn to read by himself, and he likes books about travel, space and adventure. This young lad also likes to build, and he is learning how to ride a two-wheeler bike.

Blond hair and hazel eyes describe Steven's coloring, and he will be two years old January 25.

Playing records is his favorite activity, and he also loves to bounce on his rocking horse.

Thomas has strawberry blond hair and hazel eyes. He is three years old and also attends Sunday school at Faith church. Both Walter and Tommy took part in the Christmas play which the Sunday school presented recently.

Tommy loves to play with trains and read books about them, and he is hoping that Santa will bring him an engineer's outfit for Christmas.

All three boys love to play records on their phonograph, watch TV and be read to. They also like to play with trains and cut out, color and paste.

Going shopping with their mommy is fun for this happy trio, and they also like to see color cartoon movies. The boys love their new pet puppy dog named Sandy, and they are anxiously looking forward to the new baby, due to arrive in the family in March.

The boys' grandmothers are Mrs. Eleanor Goven of Chicago and Mrs. Walter Oetzell of Villa Park. They also have a doting aunt, Miss Edith Oetzell of Villa Park.

Mrs. Hulse, Robert Knox Wed in Simple Ceremony

Mrs. Mayme Hulse of Springfield, Mo., was united in marriage with Robert Knox of Arlington Heights in a simple ceremony Saturday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mr. Knox's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer, 507 E. Euclid ave. Their attendants Mr. Knox' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Knox of Kokomo, Ind.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for an extended trip to the West coast.

Darlene Curtis, Golf rd., Arlington Heights, models a slim tweed skirt and matching middy top at the annual "desk-to-date" fashion show sponsored by Kemper Insurance women's club to show what smart working girls are wearing for casual dress. She is affiliated with American Manufacturers Mutual Insurance company, 20 North Wacker dr. The show was held in the Midland hotel.

News Of Rolling Meadows

Santa Claus Visits Rolling Meadows

Easily the most popular spot in Rolling Meadows last Sunday, December 19, was the temporary headquarters of Santa Claus in the parking lot at Campbell and Dove sts. More than 500 children personally visited with Santa Claus, and more than 100 of the younger children who were not able to withstand the cold were given their Christmas stockings without waiting to see Santa. Santa Claus seemed to have brought his "North Pole" climate with him, and it was very cold for the little tots who in some cases had to wait an hour to see him. The cold didn't seem to daunt Santa or the children, however, even though some of the parents had a slightly "bluish" tinge. A loudspeaker system had been set up so that everyone listening could easily hear Santa Claus and the children during their interviews, and Christmas music was played in the background. Santa set up his receiving spot in front of the huge lot, lending an appropriate background to the pictures so many parents took while their children were talking to Santa. Every child who spoke to Santa Claus, and many who were not able to wait in the cold, was given a Christmas stocking containing candy, fruit and gum.

The stellar role of the occasion, played to the complete satisfaction of everyone particularly the children, was taken by Al Garms who in spite of the cold gave every child his individaul attention was out in the cold from a little after 1 p.m. until almost 5 p.m.—long enough to turn the hardiest Santa Claus into a piece of ice. Particular thanks should also go to the Home Owners' association who sponsored Santa's appearance. The special committee in charge of the program was headed by George Kitterman of South st. and Rene Jaremus of Eastman st., with the active assistance of Ken Schroeder of Sigwalt st., all of whom, with other officers and directors of the association, braved the cold for the long vigil with Santa. The Christmas stockings were packed Friday evening, December 17, at The Barn by a group of volunteer women workers who cheerfully pitched in to assist Santa in his work. Following Santa's appearance, the remaining Christmas stockings were taken by Ken Schroeder and Wing Groves, president of the association, to the children's orphanage in Addison, Ill., to help brighten Christmas there. Since there were more than 150 stockings delivered to the orphanage, it should help materially with their Christmas observance.

Special Christmas Presents

Several Rolling Meadows families received their Christmas gifts early this year, those special presents from Heaven that we are all so happy to have. Little Pamela Sue Lesiak didn't come wrapped in Christmas tissue paper, but her arrival December 9 at Edgewater hospital in Chicago certainly was the highlight to her parents' holiday season. Her parents, Jerry and Diane Lesiak of 2307 Dove st., are sure their Christmas lights are burning just a little brighter this year in honor of their special Christmas gift.

Just a few doors away, Santa Claus made his visit early, too. Fred and Louise Hitzeman, 2303 Dove st. received a "king size" Christmas gift from the old gentleman when little Richard Jay checked in at Resurrection hospital in Chicago at a robust 10 pounds 3 ounces, December 6. Most pleased with the family Christmas gift was little Russel Hitzeman, who is only 20 months old himself, and one of the few fortunate youngsters who have their requests to Santa for a "baby brother" answered.

More of a Thanksgiving remembrance for her family than a Christmas gift was little Nancy Ann Waldron. Nancy Ann checked in November 20 at St. Anne's hospital in Chicago, tipping the scales at 8 pounds. Nancy Ann's parents, Eleanore and Thomas Waldron of 2105 Bluebird st., really had a thankful Thanksgiving with the new arrival to give impetus to the observance. Nancy Ann's sister Patti, who is 15 months old, thinks that Santa Claus just came early to their house.

Cub Scouts

The combination pack meeting and Christmas party for the Rolling Meadows cub scout pack was held last Monday evening, December 20. Cub master Leif Maseng gave a brief talk to the parents present, and then the boys enthusiastically took over with their part of the program. The various dens decorated the "homemade" Christmas tree with the special Christmas decorations which they had made, and then Christmas carols were sung. A special ceremony was held presenting Eric Christensen of 2200 Jay lane with his Bobcat button, to the delight of the other cubs who so recently received their buttons themselves. Another highlight of the evening was the presentation of a basketful of toys donated by the cub scouts to the nursery department of the Community church. The cub scouts also presented their den mothers with Christmas gifts of official den mother hats. There was a new den mother on hand to participate in the meeting, too. She is Mrs. Sue Kunz of 2800 Campbell st., who joins Mrs. Laverne Sladek, Mrs. Myrla Garrity and Mrs. Eleanor Keller in their inspiring work. Another new member of the active cub scout organization is Howard Christensen of 2200 Jay lane, who has volunteered to work as assistant cubmaster.

Visitor For Christmas

A special Christmas visitor all the way from Louisville, Ky., is on hand to brighten the home of Paul and Barbara Fackler of 2402 Wing st. for the Christmas season. She is Paul's sister, Miss Rudie Fackler, who made the long trip to spend the holidays with her brother and his family. Barbara Fackler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Powell and her brother Ray of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lombard of Chicago were all on hand to welcome the southern traveler, and to demonstrate some real "northern hospitality."

Home For Christmas

Another most welcome "visitor" to Rolling Meadows is Blake Vaughan of 2200 South st. Blake is the young son of Ray and Ann Vaughan, and has been away from home for the first long period of his life this fall. Blake is studying in the high school of the Holy Cross seminary on the campus of Notre Dame university. Blake was a little disappointed that he couldn't bring South Bend's weekend snowfall of 14 inches back to Chicago with him, but he is pretty glad to be home for the holidays, snow or no snow. Blake's younger brothers and sister, Larry, Kevin and "Mimi," are mighty impressed with his stories of the Notre Dame football games which he saw in South Bend, and are busy claiming his attention every spare minute.

Ill for Christmas

Their first Christmas in their new home with their new baby girl, who is less than a year old, will be sadder than planned for the Jack Koch family of 2804 Oriole lane. Joan Koch has been quite ill, and will be confined to her bed for the holidays. Bob and Pat Kaiser of 2303 Meadow drive (Pat is Jack Koch's sister) have done all they can with Jack to make Christmas more cheerful for Joan, as have her many friends and neighbors. Best wishes of other Rolling Meadows residents for the holidays.

Boy Scouts

The Panther and Hawk patrols of troop 69 of Palatine, composed of Rolling Meadows boys, have been actively participating in troop activities. The boys have also been busy lending a helping hand in Rolling Meadows as part of their "good deed" creed. A special newsletter was distributed to Rolling Meadows residents announcing Santa Claus' visit last Sunday with the active assistance of several of the scouts. The scouts were also on hand at Santa's headquarters to assist the old gentleman with the distribution of the Christmas stockings. We're sure Santa will remember all of his "helpers" when the big day arrives.

Lutheran Church Service

The second Lutheran worship service was held last Sunday morning, December 19, in the Community hall of the new Kimball Hill Public school. Mr. V. J. Stringer, student pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church in Palatine, conducted the service and delivered the sermon. Worship services will continue to be held every Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m. at the school. The Sunday school will be held at 9:15 a.m. every Sunday, and all children are invited to attend. The special Children's Christmas service will be held on Christmas Eve at 7 p.m. in the community hall. This will be a real highlight for the children, and everyone interested is invited to be on hand.

Christmas Sadness

A sad start to the holiday season was had by Mr. and Mrs. James Forbes of 2101 Sigwalt st. Following a long illness, Mr. Forbes' mother, Mrs. Frances Forbes, passed away last Thursday, December 16. The funeral for the 81 year old woman was held in her old home town of Rushville, Ill., where she was buried beside her husband.

In making the long trip to Rushville over the winter roads, Mr. and Mrs. Si Alvis, the Forbes' daughter and her husband, who have been staying here in Rolling Meadows, were involved in an automobile collision which completely demolished their car. Fortunately no one was hurt in the accident, caused by icy pavements, in spite of the fact that both cars were very badly damaged. The accident occurred near Canton, Ill. While the loss of the car is a severe blow to the Alvis and Forbes families, they are very thankful that the grandchildren were safely at home and not involved, and that no one was hurt.

Christmas Party

Their first "party" was held by the Bluebird Street Canasta club last Saturday evening, December 18, at the home of Mildred and Dick Windsor at 2102 Bluebird. The Canasta club which meets every other Wednesday, regularly collects "dues" for their club party "kitty," and the Christmas party was their first celebration. The party, which featured games, a grab bag, and other festivities, not to mention all of the good things to eat and drink, was a complete success to the satisfaction of all the club members, who are all fairly new residents of Rolling Meadows, Dorothy Fromm, Marion Garrity, Anita Geldermen, Shirley Hahn, Carol Larsen, Dorothy Lund, Jane Self, Shirley Strentz, Eleanore Waldron, Mildren Windsor and Lorrain Crotch, all of whom live on Bluebird street. All club members with their respective spouses in tow, were on hand for the Christmas party, and all are eagerly looking forward to their next celebration.

Christmas Advice

Well aware of the unusual dangers which Christmas trees present in the way of fire hazards, the Home Owners' association is planning a community tree burning for the early part of January. You will be notified of the time, place and date later, but in the meantime you can be assured there will be a minimum of local unattended fires to get rid of discarded Christmas trees.

Some very pertinent Christmas advice has been submitted by "Chief" Yunger of 2409 Wing st. "Chief" Yunger is a fireman, and has heartily recommended the following rules for Rolling Meadows residents for their holiday observances.

1. Keep your tree outdoors until you are ready to install it.
2. Do not set up your tree until a few days before Christmas.
3. Place your tree in the coolest part of the house. If necessary, shut off the heat register nearest the tree.
4. Secure the tree with wire at the top to prevent falling or tipping.
5. Be sure to disconnect all light sets before leaving the house and before going to bed.
6. Do not leave children alone or unattended while the tree is on display.
7. Be sure your tree is fresh and not dried out—discard as soon as any drying is evident.
8. Use only electric lights and be sure all cords are in perfect condition. Use only approved material, and do not use candles. Fuses on tree light circuit must never exceed 15 amperes, and electrical circuits should not be overloaded. If a fuse should blow out reduce the number of lights.
9. Do not leave tree lights burning when no one is in the house. From time to time inspect the tree and see whether any of the needles near the lights have started to turn brown. If so change the location of the lights. Remember, it takes less than half a minute for the average Christmas tree to burn to charred wood.
10. Avoid accumulations of paper. Dispose of wrappings promptly.
11. If lights are desired in windows never use candles. Keep curtains and other flammable material pulled back at least six inches from any light.
12. To keep your tree fresh and green keep it outdoors until needed. To prepare the tree for indoor use saw off the butt end at an angle and one inch above the original cut. Also cut vertical grooves into the cambium of the tree trunk. Keep the tree standing in water while it is in the house, adding water as necessary to keep its level above the cuts.
13. Have a portable fire extinguisher or a water bucket handy in case of fire.
14. In case of fire call the Palatine Operator (711) giving her your address and unit number, and try to have someone at the corner of Wilke Road and Campbell street to meet the fire rig.

Rolling Meadows residents, 1,000 strong, greeted Santa Claus Sunday afternoon with the lineup of children and parents stretching 'round and 'round. The community of almost 700 homes has become one of the brighter towns of the area with almost every house sporting lights visible from passing cars. —Staff Photo

Prospect Meadows

The Meadows is glowing with Christmas cheer — lots of holly and Christmas lights, inside and out. Last night we were treated by golden-voiced 'cherubs," with carols. Our girl scouts and cub scouts strolled up and down the street singing all the best-loved songs. This led us right into the spirit of things. Tonight all children will anxiously await a visit from Santa Claus. This is just a prevue visit arranged by the Women's auxiliary, since all good boys and girls will be fast asleep when Santa makes his famous rounds.

Cub Scout News

The big day dawned December 17 for den 13. All their hours of practice proved well spent. The boys handled the induction ceremonies at North school like veterans. Boys from the Meadows presented with awards at the induction were: Larry Richardson, wolf badge, and Frank DeBerge, Mike Doyle and Dick Cody, arrow points. Den 13's "lily" was gilded even more when they were awarded the flag for the first time. The flag is won on merits and the winning den has possession for a month. After the Christmas grab bag event, the boys trimmed a tree with ornaments they had made. Then soda pop and donuts refreshed the weary.

As a special treat for winning the flag, leader Ray Doyle plans a party for the boys some time after the holidays. The cubs will not meet again 'til January 7.

Blessed Event

Congratulations to Ann and Vic Incinelli. The great event occured December 18 at 11:30 a.m. A son, Victor Joseph, greeted the world at St. Francis hospital, Evanston — 6 pounds 6 ounces. Such a wonderful Christmas present!

Howdy Neighbors

The Prospect Meadows welcoming committee called on a new family in our community. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wills and their two sons moved into their new home at 400 Larkdale lane last week. Welcome aboard new Meadowites.

Back Home

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Heurlin of Bob-O-Link rd. returned last week from Boston. They drove East with daughters Merri and Vicki to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Nelson and Victor Heurlin.

Birthday Greetings

Stevie Creamer celebrated his third birthday December 16 with an ice cream and cake party. His guests were Russ Ann Seymour, Don Cody, Bill Toner, Joan Daniels, and his brothers, Jimmy and Larry. The mothers enjoyed the party too. Present were Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Cody, Mrs. Toner and Mrs. Daniels.

Christmas Program

Last Sunday night, Jimmy Creamer of Oriole lane joined his Sunday school class in a children's Christmas program at Prospect Heights Baptist church.

Injured

Mrs. Vera Valentine of Bob-O-Link rd. was injured December 15 when her car was struck by a semi-truck at Foundry and Elmhurst rd. Vera is in Ressurection hospital recovering from extensive injuries. Her ffiends and neighbors wish her a speedy return to health. Best news yet is that the hospital will permit Vera's sons, Donn, Dean and Dane, to open their gifts with mother Christmas day!

Mrs. Valentine's accident brings to mind the efforts of the Property Owner's association with regard to the corner of Foundry and Elmhurst. All residents of the Meadows are familiar with the difficulty in "finding" that turn after dark. The association has been actively engaged in trying to get a light for that corner.

Best Wishes

Well, next week at this time all will be over...and junior and Janie will be happy for another year. We wish you all a Merry Christmas.

Elk Grove News

School News

There was a fine turnout of parents to see the Christmas program at Elk Grove school Thursday evening. Each room participated with songs and plays. The seventh and eighth graders presented the nativity with Egon Kosel as Joseph and Carolyn Meidema as Mary. The Christmas story was sung by other members of this class and costumes and arrangement were done by Mrs. Coston, eighth grade teacher. Back drops and scenery were made by Rod Turner and the boys of the upper grades. Mrs. Chappelear's third grade gave a Christmas version of "This Ole House" with the house belonging to Santa Claus. Costumes for each grade were made by the teachers and some of the mothers.

Friday each room had their own Christmas party in the afternoon with ice cream and cookies and much fun. Vacation is from Friday afternoon 3 o'clock December 17 until 9 a.m. Monday, January 3.

Mothers' Club News

The Mothers' club meeting and Book Fair were very successful. Around 100 books were donated to the school through this Fair and the Mothers' club is to be thanked for this wonderful addition to the library. However, many of the books went to the lower grade individual room libraries.

The next regular meeting of the Mothers' club will be Thursday, January 13 at 1:30. Mrs. Adams, president, etxends greeting to all members and hopes that the New Year will bring out many more mothers.

Sports

Elk Grove's basketball team has new uniforms—our team will be the Elk Grove Elks. The team practised at Arlington Heights last Saturday. Mr. Turner and Mr. Rabattini are coaches.

The Boy Scouts are interested in starting Scouting for the Elk Grove Community boys. Anyone interested should call the N. W. Suburban Council and give them his name.

Mrs. Allison, fourth grade teacher, and her family are going to spend the Christmas holidays in Florida.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to the entire Elk Grove Community.

Feehanville School

This has been a short, exciting week for the Feehanville students, as they had a school party planned, they had play rehearsals several afternoons, and Wednesday night at the Community hall the play was scheduled.

The seventh graders at Prospect Heights had an informative and enjoyable trip last week Monday. A bus was chartered, and the whole class was transported to Tribune Tower in Chicago. The children visited all parts of the building, climaxed with a movie showing all the steps going into making a newspaper, from the pulp-wood in the lumber camps to the finished copy. When they left the Tribune Tower they visited a coast guard boat at the Navy Pier, and, guided by one of the coast guard, were taken through all parts of the boat.

The seventh graders were planning a class Christmas party and brought grab-bag gifts. The gifts, however, instead of being exchanged among the students, were placed in the Christmas barrel that a philanthropic organization is filling.

Civic Association

December meeting of the Forest River Home Owners' Civic association will be Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. at the Community hall.

Christmas party, sponsored by the F.R.H.O. Civic association, was held last Sunday. Martin Martyr, a volunteer fireman from Elmwood Park, was the master of ceremonies and introduced the various acts. Jackie Sims did two tap numbers, one a glamorous twinkle-toes bit and one a graceful hula. Sharon Anderson and Judy Munson made their teacher, Mrs. Verna Buttner, proud by their faultless tap routine in their premier before an audience. All the girls looked lovely in their colorful, shiny costumes. Charles and Richard Kozel, accordionists, gave a masterful rendition of "Silent Night" in a duet and then each played a solo. Martin Martyr, pantomime artist, kept the audience, young and old alike, giggling with his antics while pantomiming the songs "Dinah," "Blue Eyes," "I Love Girls" and one of Jimmy Durante's specialties. When Santa's bells were heard outside the door, Mr. Martyr started the children singing "Jingle Bells" to welcome the jolly old gent. Ben Hartzog made a jolly and believable Santa Claus and thrilled the little children when he called their names to present their gifts. After the gifts had all been given out, Santa Claus made a special trip to see Johnny Ericson and Mary Jane Arkell, both children who have been confined to their beds for long periods of time.

Ice cream and cake were served to the children, cake and coffee to the parents, and as each child left he was presented a bag of candy.

Mrs. Rita Badalamenti, chairman, and committee members, Mrs. Eva Anderson, Mrs. Betty Arkell, Mrs. Marguerite Broberg, Mrs. Jeanne Duncanson, Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth and Mrs. I. A. Hanson, all felt amply rewarded for the great amount of time and effort expended on this party when they saw the children's delight in the entertainment, refreshments, and, of course, Santa's presence. Husbands of the committee members are also deserving of special mention for the help they gave the committee, not only at this party but at the games party held to raise funds for this party. Children who were not able to attend Sunday will find their gift at the home of Mrs. Badalamenti on Foundry road. Please call there and pick it up.

Teen-age club, sponsored by the Civic association, had their Christmas party December 18. There was a good turn-out, as teen agers from Chicago, Des Plaines and Forest River came making a total of almost 50. They danced by the light of the Christmas tree and played games. Sandwiches, cake and pop were served. Joanne Arkell and Anthony Lopez brought the cakes, and George Grenda and Jimmy Brewer brought the sandwiches. The chaperones were Mrs. Robert Phar, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Unger.

Forest River Church

Tonight, December 23, at 7:30 the Sunday school will present their annual Christmas program at the church. The children have put a lot of work on this program, hoping to make it the best yet, and they know you will enjoy the results of their effort. At this time, too, special awards are given to those who have had perfect attendance throughout the year. Next year, in addition to the attendance award, there will be another award for those who have consistently memorized Scripture during the year.

Pioneer girls were having their Christmas party Tuesday night. They are completely equipping a Christmas basket, and instead of exchanging gifts they are each bringing a gift to go into the Christmas basket.

Members of the church and Sunday school are planning to meet at the church at 10:15 p.m. Christmas eve and will start out carolling at 10:30. They will carol for the sick ones first, then through the streets of the community and back to the church for refreshments afterward.

Ladies' Bible class had their Christmas party Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Hartwig.

New addition of the church is progressing as rapidly as volunteer help can build it. They are getting ready to do the electrical work now, and more volunteer help would be appreciated. The cement floor is scheduled to be poured in the near future.

Saturday night a group of teenagers had a surprise party for Robert Levine on his sixteenth birthday. Included among the 18 present were Robert Martens, Janet Sandquist, John Hanson, Ruth Levine, Bonnie Levine and Gail Wiltshire. The nonsensical banter accompanying the zany games played by the teen-agers kept the chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Levine, vastly entertained. The general hilarity was only increased when, in the now-famous water-glass relay race, one lad claimed "some dirty dog had pinched his straw" so he couldn't draw water. "Happy Birthday" was sung with great fervor when refreshment time came, and the hot dogs and cake were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Community News

Mrs. Eva Anderson, Mrs. Mae Schmidt and Mrs. Marguerite Broberg attended the potluck supper held by the scout leaders of the Des Plaines district last week Wednesday. Grab bag gifts were exchanged by the members who attended. This was also election night, and Mrs. Eva Anderson was elected secretary of the Leaders' club.

Congratulations to the Ed Brookhouzen family on the arrival of their new daughter, Marian Grace. She was born December 12, weighing seven pounds, five ounces.

C. W. Flink will be back in town Thursday after a two-month absence working in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzer of Kansas City will be arriving at the Flinks' home Thursday afternoon for a visit.

Mrs. Alma Mueller, who was operated on at the Grant hospital last week Tuesday is doing fine and will soon be home.

Brownies

The Brownies took their Christmas projects which they completed at their last meeting and put them in brown bags so they could safely hide them from curious family eyes at home until the right time came to uncover them.

Dividing up into patrols the girls discussed what they would like to do for the rest of the year. Their ideas chiefly gravitated to summer fun, such as swimming and going on picnics.

Brownies of troop 303 wish everybody a merry Christmas.

Your reporter is getting a belated acquaintanceship with a Wedgewood Terrace newcomer, the Robert Walshs' Anthony Robert, born September 9 at Resurrection hospital. A tiny fellow at birth, 5 pounds 11 ounces, he is now an armful at 10 pounds 6 ounces, happy and healthy. (AM

Christmas Party

Sunday afternoon, about 45 children gathered in the basement of North school for the Christmas party sponsored by the Arlington Terrace association. They enjoyed five films including "Alice in Wonderland," "Night Before Christmas," and "Christmas Carols." After the films, Santa Claus came for a visit. He listened to each child's report of behavior and list of what to bring him for Christmas. Then he have each one a stocking full of candy and ice cream which they ate while listening to all the favorite Christmas carols, Judy Quill, Janice Joynson, Eunice La Follette, and Pat Reif sang carols, too.

Jimmy and Jackie Irmen, 1005 N. Douglas ave., and their cousins, Ralph and Michael Elwart, 1013 N. Douglas ave., went to a Christmas party last Thursday at the Civic Opera house in Chicago. This party, sponsored by the Continental Illinois bank, was attended by all the children and grandchildren of the bank's employees. The boys were the guests of Grandpa Westrich, the father of Mrs. Irmen and Mrs. Elwart. They enjoyed the circus acts performed for them and came home with games from Santa Claus. They also brought a gift for baby Marian Elwart.

Birthday

After having a wonderful time at the Christmas party in the North school, Sherry Hofer came home to blow out the candle on her first birthday cake. After taking enough cake to fill her two little hands and cover her face, she allowed Grandma Anderson from Chicago, sister Barbie, and mother and daddy to have some, too.

Mrs. Stan Sitarz is home with a bandaged ankle and many bruises after being knocked down by a car on Frederick st. last week. The unfortunate accident happened while Mrs. Sitarz was on her way to pick up daughter Janice at St. James school.

New Arrival

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stan Dalley, 905 N. Douglas ave., on the arrival of their third child. A son, Stephen, weighing 5 pounds 7 ounces, was born December 17 in St. Luke's hospital. Mrs. Olga Wallace of Chicgo is here taking care of sister Carolyn 4, and Nancee 1½. Mrs. Emma Dalley of New Jersey is the paternal grandmother.

Karen, Allen and Michael Herr, 901 N. Douglas ave., attended a Christmas party last Friday night given by Mr. Herr's club, "The Chameleons." The children each received a gift from Santa.

OBITUARIES

Albert Schultz

Funeral services were held December 10 in Wheeling Presbyterian church for Albert Schultz of Wheeling. Mr. Schultz died at Hines hospital where he was suffering from a heart ailment. He is survived by his wife, Mary, two children, Dorothy Sanders and Earl, two grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Martha Schmidt.

Burial, Wheeling cemetery.

Elizabeth Ann Tribbey

Cites 'Imperative' Need For Vast Toll Road System

As protests from suburban "property owners" mounted, an authority on state government this week urged approval for Gov. Stratton's proposed toll road plan for Illinois.

The state faces a critical road situation," declared William L. Frederick, research director of the Council of State Governments, 1313 E. 60th st., Chicago. He told Paddock Publications that "frankly, Illinois highways are in bad shape."

Explaining that highways were vital to the state's economy, Frederick said, "We're just going to have to spend more money on roads." He described Illinois' inadequate road system, already choked with an overload of truck and auto traffic, as "desperate."

"ALL STATES, including Illinois, are faced with an imperative need for limited access, high-speed highways," explained the official. "But the plain fact is, states just haven't the funds to build them."

He outlined what he called the only possible means for improving an outmoded highway network:

1—Increase gasoline and other taxes;

2—Float bond issues for state construction; or

3—Approve privately-financed toll roads.

"Toll roads are the obvious answer," said Frederick. "An increased gasoline tax would be prohibitive as well as impractical since it would mean increasing the cost of gas at least 15 cents a gallon."

He cited the unfinished Congress st. super-highway as an example of the futility of trying to build an expressway from existing funds.

Bond issues are also unsatisfactory because some states have difficulty borrowing money and most can't afford to plunge deeper into debt.

THE PROPOSED toll road plan would mean no general tax, and a toll road commission, a corporation separate from the state, would be responsible for the bonds.

Dan Ryan, president of the Cook county board, has asked the governor to defer the toll program because Congress might act upon the Eisenhower proposals for 25 billion dollars to be spent in the next 10 years for inter-regional roads and their urban extension.

With federal help, Ryan thinks Illinois might get expressways without 21 million dollars a year being collected at toll gates.

But Frederick said he agreed with Stratton that the Illinois highway system needs toll routes plus everything it can get from the federal government.

"BESIDES," HE said, "there is no assurance of federal aid since right now the President seems to be the only one in Washington in favor of it."

Strong opposition to toll routes has stemmed from the American Motel association and various Chambers of Commerce, both of whom fear loss of revenue through reduced traffic on secondary roads.

A gaily trimmed evergreen . . . exciting packages . . . a well-filled stocking . . . presence of friends and family . . . resounding good cheer: all this we wish for you at Christmas!

MERRY CHRISTMAS

"Each Christmas Day as the bells ring out their glad message, the Spirit of the Child is reborn—the Child who was born that long-ago night when the watching shepherds saw the star rise and heard the angels sing.

"The Christmas Spirit never dies. It dwells in every heart from birth down through the years, even to old age. In moments of forgetfulness we may lull it to sleep. But when the Christmas bells begin to ring out their message of peace and good will and when the lighted candles girdle the earth with their golden gleam of brotherly unity, the Child Spirit rises and soars above all earthly care in power and glory. We are little children again, trusting, loving, and beloved." Angelo Patri.

"Christmas to me means secrets, gifts and the happy, all-over warm feeling you get as Christmas draws near. I think most people forget about Christ and only remember Santa Claus."
(Found in a returned library book).

Again this year the Arlington Heights Woman's Club has provided the library with a beautiful Christmas tree to be enjoyed by all during the holiday season.

To our thousands of readers, both juvenile and adult

A merry, merry Christmas!

The library will be closed December 24, 25 and 26.

Eastwood Events

It was such a lovely sight, coming home from the Eastwood party, to see all those bright and gay outside-decorations neighbors are putting up. So many residents have real artistic talents, as their outdoor trimmings and lighting effects show.

Mrs. Lorraine Gustafson wishes to thank all the women who contributed cookies for the Christmas party. Thanks also to Garth Heisig, who was in charge of the tree and decorations. Foster Travis, who secured and showed the movies and Bill Kasper, who for the third year portrayed Santa. Then too, there are those ladies who served refreshments, and the clean-up committee. Thanks to all of these willing workers.

In case anyone was admiring that lovely outfit Santa wore, it is the product of Mrs. Elna Nickelsen, who made the beautiful costume which will be used for many years to come.

On leaving the field house Sunday we discovered a pair of ladies black leather gloves with fur trim. They are in the possession of your corrsepondent, so if you are the owner of said article please call CL. 3-7312.

Return From West

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Loftis returned Saturday from a California vacation. Their granddaughter, Patty McDermott, accompanied them on the trip that took them to Los Angeles for a nice stay and Palm Springs for 3 weeks.

Back from Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raasch. They returned home last Thursday from St. Petersburg where they spent a week. A week in Daytona Beach and a few days in Sarasota took care of the remainder of their vacation time.

Bud, Lou and Lynn Larson spent last weekend in Louisville where they visited Lou's father.

Holiday Entertaining

December 14, Mrs. Bob Wallace entertained 16 women at a dessert bridge party.

A holiday cocktail party was held Sunday for neighbors and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edmonds.

The Charles Barretts started Christmas week off with a buffet supper Sunday with Mr. Barrett's family as guests.

Another buffet supper in the holiday theme was held at the John Lukes, Sunday evening.

Cub Scout Party

At the Cub Scout Christmas party held at the North school last Friday evening, Freddie Barker and John Wingquist were made official members of pack 232. John is in den 7 and Freddie in den 11.

Suzanne Yonker missed the Chrismas party because of chicken pox.

December 20, Wally Berglind, son of the Ray Berglinds of 638 N. Beverly, entertained friends at a luncheon in honor of his third birthday. His guests were Kevin Klopfenstein, Francine and Joseph Schneller, Joyce Anderson and Wally's sister, Barbara Ann.

Return From Europe

Mr. and Mrs. August Hennings arrived in Chicago Saturday morning, completing a 10-month trip that took them to England and many other European countries. On their return to Arlington Heights, they were surprised to find that friends of theirs, Mr. and Mrs. August Rath, had moved directly across the street. The Hennings will be talking for months on the many novel and interesting things they did and saw while traveling.

Janet Marie Eiferman was born Dec. 6 at St. Francis hospital. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Eiferman of 801 N. Beverly lane. Steve, 2, and Patty, 1, are Janet's brother and sister. Grand parents of the 6 pound baby are Mr. and Mrs. Al Baier of the Beverly address, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eiferman of St. Joseph, Mich. The baby also has great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anetsberger, also of Arlington Heights.

Annual Free Kids Show

The eighth annual free holiday movie for children will be presented at the Arlington theater Monday, December 27. This is being sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Horath and Mr. and Mrs. Don Knapp. Mr. Horath owns the Shell Service station on east Northwest hwy., and the Knapps own the theatre.

Children living north of Northwest hwy. are invited to come at 9 a.m., and children living south of Northwest hwy. will attend the 1:30 p.m. show. Doors will open at 8:30 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Three Services To Mark Christmas At Faith

Christmas will be celebrated in three special services at Faith Lutheran church, 431 S. State rd., Arlington Heights. Christmas eve at 7:30 p.m., the large Sunday school of Faith church will present the children's service, "Gather Round the Christmas Tree." This service will feature full-color scenes of the nativity on a large screen above the altar. There will be recitations and carols by the children and all children in attendance will be remembered with a gift.

The service Christmas day will begin at 10 a.m. "Come Hither, Ye Faithful" will be the theme of this carol service with special anthems by the vested choirs and a Christmas meditation by Pastor Behrens.

The third Christmas service will be Sunday at 10:45 a.m. with sermon by Richard Gotsch of Concordia seminary, St. Louis.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The everpresent power of God which brings courage, joy, and healing to men of all ages, wherever it is understood, will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, December 26.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" will include the following selection from the Bible (Matthew 2:1, 2): "Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the King, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following passage (109:24): "When a new spiritual idea is borne to earth, the prophetic Scripture of Isaiah is renewedly fulfilled: 'Unto us a child is born, . . . and his name shall be called Wonderful.'"

The Golden Text is from II Peter (1:21): "The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

Juniors To Get Results O. State High School Tests

The results of the Illinois state-wide high school testing program administered to the Junior class and some seniors at Arlington Heights high school, have been received by the school.

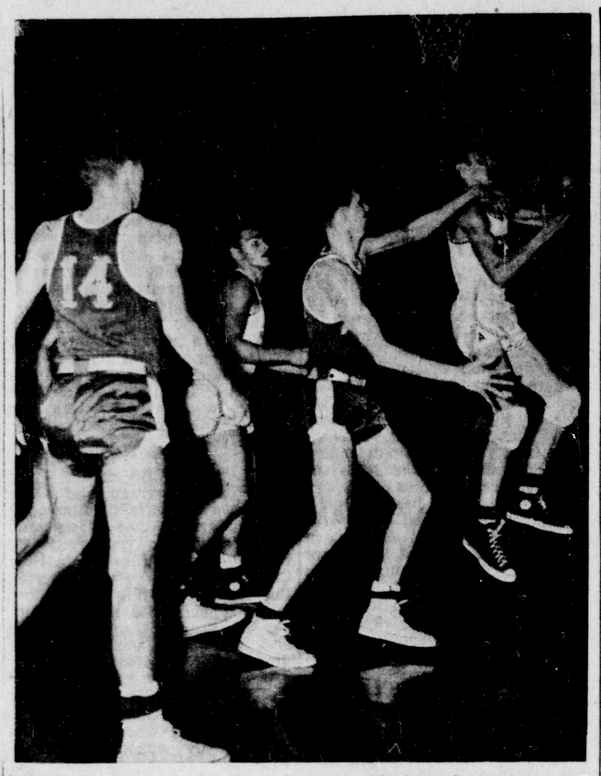

This testing program, which is provided by the unit on evaluation of the University of Illinois, consists of four tests, two of which are designed to measure verbal reasoning ability and abstract reasoning ability, both factors of general intelligence. Another test is designed to measure reading ability in the fields of natural science and social science, including comprehension of information presented graphically as well as in written form. The fourth test is designed to measure general writing ability, avoidance of conventional errors (such as wrong punctuation, abbreviations, spelling, capitalization, and paragraph division), and avoidance of functional errors (such as improper word order) which impair the author's ability to express his exact meaning.

Each student's scores will be interpreted to him by a counselor who may indicate the uses of the scores for future educational planning, be it high school or college, and also for vocational planning. It is not uncommon for hidden talents to be exposed by tests such as these which may result in a successful college career for some who consider themselves inadequate for college work. On the other hand, knowledge of the test results may prevent an unsuccessful and disappointing attempt at college by some incapable of it, and lead such students to a development of goals which are more in line with their abilities, and which offer much greater promise of satisfaction.

Senior students who took the tests had interpretation interviews with counselors prior to Christmas vacation. After vacation, a general interpretation will be given to the juniors in their English classes, and individual interviews with the students will be conducted on a schedule that will carry through January.

Guest Pastor To Close Lutheran Hour Series

In the final broadcast Sunday of his series of 10 sermons as guest speaker on The Lutheran Hour, the Rev. Kenneth R. Hoffmann of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, will discuss the topic "The Attitude of the Believer at the Close of the Year."

Beginning January 2, The Lutheran Hour guest speaker will be the Rev. Paul G. Stephan of St. Louis. Pastor Stephan, who will serve as guest speaker for three months, was a summer speaker on the radio program in 1951 and 1952.

The Lutheran Hour is the world's most wide-spread religious broadcast, heard regularly on more than 1150 radio stations in 65 countries and territories and in 56 languages.

Dedicate New Church In Rites At Barrington

St. Michael's Episcopal church, a new $78,000 edifice of red brick and black steel architecturally designed to reflect Christianity as a "living reality" and not a gift from the past, was dedicated last week by the Rt. Rev. Gerald F. Burill, bishop of Chicago.

The church with its open tower, built after contemporary designs, will serve a parish organized in 1949 and served by the Rev. Joseph B. Williams, rector, who has guided the new congregation through its building program.

The dedication and consecration service reached a peak of solemnity when a choir of 25 priests from the district joined in singing the "Missa Maralis," a 13th Century Gregorian chant.

Church furnishings, contributed for the most part by parishioners, include objects of art by contemporary artists and designers.

Potted Partridge

A regal dish indeed is potted partridge, for which you will need 4 or 5 birds and a beanpot or casserole.

Place the partridge giblets and 3 chicken livers in water and stew until tender. Remove and chop them, add 1½ cups cracker crumbs and 1 cup bread crumbs, 5 slices bacon cut into ½ inch strips and partly fried (not to a crisp), 1 large egg beaten, 2 teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon pepper and 1 teaspoon paprika. Stuff birds, place in pot and season with ground cloves, nutmeg and mace. Stuff apple quarters around birds, add 4 tablespoons red wine, 4 tablespoons liquid in which giblets were cooked and 4 tablespoons butter.

Cover casserole or pot tightly, place in moderate oven (350 degrees) and bake 2½ hours.

Illinois Bell Drivers Attend Safe Driving Confab At Arlington

Some 60 male employees of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, who collectively boast one of the highest on the job safety records of any company in Arlington Heights, recently learned even more about safety on the roads, streets and highways.

A representative of the State Highway police department, Sgt. Richard R. Massa, spoke briefly to all male plant employees who have occasion to drive vehicles for the company.

Arlington employees have compiled an outstanding safety record with some 40 vehicles in service. No accidents have been experienced in the last 12 months. This is well below the state and national average.

A six point safety star was given to the drivers for use on the windshields of their vehicles, denoting their pledge to continue safe driving and their attendance at the safe driving conference. Men from other departments driving any type of company vehicle were also invited to attend. Stickers for use on personal cars also were distributed. The conference is being extended to male employees of the company all over the state who drive company vehicles, according to Manager W. C. Lathen.

The conference is part of Governor Stratton's "Safety Pledge" program started last year. State officials are hoping that it will result in safer driving practices among the motorists of Illinois. A motorist may obtain one of the "Safety Pledge" stickers by applying at any State Police station, or to any state policeman. Upon his promise to drive safely, and his signature on the back of the sticker in the officer's presence, the sticker is then affixed to the motorist's windshield in the lower left hand corner.

Illinois Bell Telephone company is one of many companies throughout the state which participated in "Safe Driving Day," recently proclaimed by President Eisenhower.

Report on Water Softening Project

Copies of a survey regarding the water supply and softening program in Arlington Heights were distributed to the board members. They will study the report and will discuss it with the village engineers at a special meeting January 11.

According to the engineers the report points favorably toward a city operated water softening system.

Board members approved the transfer of $30,000 from the working cash fund to the corporate fund in order to meet incoming bills after the first of the year. The working cash fund was established specifically for this purpose, to offset slow tax collections not made in time to meet expenses in the general corporate fund.

VILLAGE ATTORNEY Hugo J. Thal and Village Manager F. Robert Buechner were told to investigate further the request of North Glen Builders (Roy Fey) to use the escrow fund provided by the Veterans' administration to assure public improvements in the subdivision. The village requires each builder to put up in escrow the amount needed for the improvements, plus 15 per cent more to offset any additional expenses that might occur.

The Veterans' administration requires builders to put up in escrow one and a half times the amount of the public improvements to assure the monies being available to complete the work. The developer felt it was unjust to have to put up cash for the same thing with two different parties.

The bid of Heights Wall and Floor Coverings to tile offices in the village hall was accepted.

Man, 25, Is Found Shot In Parked Car

A 25-year-old Berwyn man was found shot to death Sunday in his car on McDonald rd. near Wolf rd. in Wheeling township.

He was Jack Paul Roeder, of 2125 Harvey, Berwyn, whose body was discovered by forest preserve rangers with the muzzle of a .22 caliber rifle against his head and his toe on the trigger.

Roeder left no notes, and police were unable to explain a motive for the apparent suicide.

Obituary

Edward H. Stoebig

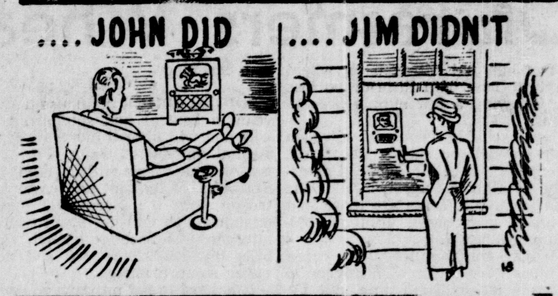

Funeral services for Edward H. Stoebig, late resident of 36 S. Glenwood ave., Palatine, were held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Miller Funeral parlors, 5300 W. Belmont ave., Chicago.

The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens of Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, officiated at the services.

Mr. Stoebig, 65, is survived by two sons, Charles E., Alvin C., a daughter, Lois Ann, senior at Palatine high school, and his wife, Rosina.

Good Idea To Put Nitrogen On Farmers' Wheat Now

You can put nitrogen on wheat anytime now with little or no loss by following a few simple precautions.

Nonleachable forms of nitrogen will be safe on nearly all farms, according to E. H. Tyner, University of Illinois agronomist. The non leachable forms are those that contain ammonium, urea or calcium cyanamid.

Warm soil temperatures cause nonleachable forms of nitrogen to become leachable in time. But Tyner says the soil temperatures throughout the rest of the winter will probably be low enough to prevent leaching.

SOIL IS DRIER than usual this year in central and southern Illinois and will absorb more than the normal amount of water. For this reason less water will be likely to drain out of the soil and carry nitrogen with it. Normally, Tyner explains, you will get some winter nitrogen loss because enough rain falls to restock the dry soil and cause some drainage.

It is hard to put nitrogen on some soils early in the spring. Fortunately, these soils are the safest ones on which to put nitrogen in the fall.

FOR INSTANCE, Clarence and Cisne soils, and others related to them, have a tight subsoil and lose relatively little moisture from subsurface drainage. So you won't lose much nitrogen that way. On the other hand, these soils stay wet so late in the spring that it's difficult to get into the fields to apply nitrogen then.

Farm Records Help Steer Farm Business

Running a farm without good records is like driving a car with a dirty windshield. You never know for sure where you're going, says Farm Adviser, Carl F. Mees.

In urging Cook County farmers to keep accurate records in 1955, Mees emphasizes that it's one way to determine the money-making and money-losing phases of the farm business.

Records tell exactly where the cost dollars went. They show crop yields, livestock production, the sale price of major products and a lot of other valuable information.

MEES SAYS that, although there are several good farm account books on the market, one of the best and most economical you can get is the Illinois Farm Record Book. It's easy to keep and can be used in several ways: for income tax reports, as a credit statement, for records on social security tax payments and for a self-study of the farm business to locate profit leaks.

More than 30,000 Illinois farmers used this record book in 1954.

You can get a copy at Mees' office at 201 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

'Dairy Family Of The Year' On Farm TV Show

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schuett and their son, Walter Jr., the nation's "dairy family of the year," will be featured guests on "Farmtown, U.S.A." Sunday, Dec. 26.

The Schuetts, who reside on a 206-acre dairy farm near Woodstock in McHenry county, were selected by the American Farm Bureau Federation as the nation's dairy family for their outstanding work in promoting the sale of milk and dairy products.

The entire family has been on a 10-day trip to the east, first visiting the AFBF annual meeting in New York City where they were honored, and then continuing to Washington, D. C. The expense-paid trip to Washington was their reward for being selected first in the nation-wide contest.

When the Schuetts appear on "Farmtown, U.S.A." at 2 p.m. Sunday on WBBM-TV (Channel 2) as guests of George Menard, they will report on their trip and talk about the responsibilities dairy farmers have in furthering the sale of dairy products.

Make Final Plans For Blue Cross Sign-Up

Final plans for an enrollment for rural and small-town residents of Cook county in the Blue Cross plan for hospital care and Blue Shield medical-surgery plan were made at a health improvement association board meeting November 24.

"Because so much interest has been shown in the Chicago Blue Cross program and its companion plan, Blue Shield medical-surgical Plan of Illinois medical service, we are conducting this county-wide enrollment," it was stated.

ALL MEMBERS of the Cook county farm bureau and Cook county truck gardeners association under 66 years of age and self-employed in groups of less than 10 are eligible to join Blue Cross and Blue Shield during this special enrollment. Both husband and wife must be under 66 years of age to enroll and include all unmarried children under 19 years of age.

NOW IS ALSO the time to add any new-born children to your contract, whose name does not already appear on same. Also any unmarried child becoming 19 years of age should take out a new contract. Any one having a single contract or on a family contract, changing their marital status, should also take care of this during the period. This is also an opportunity for those who are just enrolled in Blue Cross to add the Blue Shield coverage to their contract. You would be entitled to come into the group and receive group benefits.

Chicago Blue Cross is the plan that provides all basic and many special hospital care services for 30 days in each calendar year, plus an additional 90 days when half the cost of Blue Cross benefits received will be paid by the Plan. Since Blue Cross benefits are usually provided on the basis of hospital care services needed instead of in limited dollar allowances, members are protected against the cost of a hospital stay whether Blue Cross benefits received total $2.00, $2,000 or more.

BENEFITS of the Chicago plan are available in 224 of the leading hospitals in Illinois which sponsor this plan. In addition, service benefits are provided in over 5,000 Blue Cross hospitals throughout the United States and Canada through the interplan service benefit bank, of which the Chicago plan is a member

Blue Shield provides over 1,200 specific allowances to help members pay their doctor bills for surgical and medical care in the hospital and for obstetrical services either in or out of the hospital as well as for a number of other professional services.

Elect Shuman Prexy Of Farm Bureau Federation

Charles B. Shuman, Sullivan, has been unanimously elected president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

His election came at the closing session of the national farm organization's 36th annual meeting in the Hotel New Yorker.

Shuman succeeds Allan B. Kline, Vinton, Ia., as head of the AFBF which has a membership of more than 1,609,000 farm families in the 48 states and Puerto Rico. Kline announced Tuesday he was resigning because of ill health, with one year still to be served on a two-year term. Shuman was elected to fill the unexpired term.

A grain and livestock farmer from central Illinois, Shuman comes to the AFBF presidency after having served nine years as president of the Illinois agricultural association. The IAA is the largest state-wide Farm Bureau group in the nation, with a membership of more than 201,000 farm families.

The new AFBF president has been a member of the board of directors since 1945. He farms about 200 acres and supervises the operation of tenants on about 550 acres in addition.

LAW on the FARM

Joint Tenancy and Taxes

Ownership in joint tenancy means that two or more persons have undivided interests in a piece of property—each with the right to take immediately the share of a joint tenant who dies. When a husband and wife are joint tenants, should one or the other die, title and possession of the property instantly passes to the other spouse.

It is a good common belief that, as between husband and wife, joint tenancy is a good way to hold title to property. For the average family with a family home a modest bank account and life insurance, joint tenancy may be the best way, particularly if the parents have young children and have not made a will. Also, the new tax law made some changes that favor the joint tenant. For example, a surviving joint tenant now takes the property at a new value (as of the time of death). This eliminates a possible large income tax in case the survivor sells the property.

HOWEVER, the farm family that owns 200 or 300 acres of good farm land and equipment is confronted with a new tax problem. For two reasons joint tenancy may not be so attractive, as it was when the farm was worth only one-half or one-third as much:

1. When one joint tenant dies, the entire value of the property is included in his estate for federal tax purposes — unless the survivor can show that he or she paid part of the purchase price. Property purchased from farm profits is considered to be the husband's property under this law even though title is taken in joint tenancy. The farmer, not the wife, is presumed to be the owner.

2. IF THE ESTATE is large enough (over $120,000), there may be two federal taxes on the same property in a short period of time. And the second tax can be quite large. Take this example:

Total Value of Estate	$170,000
Husband dies first, federal tax is	2,300
At wife's death, tax is	23,000

The tax is higher in the second estate because the marital deduction cannot be used.

There are ways to hold property that will accomplish much the same purpose as joint tenancy. If your estate is large enough to make death taxes an important factor, you should get legal advice before placing your property in joint tenancy.

Correction: The date for farmers to make a final income tax return (if you don't use an estimate return) is January 31, 1955, instead of February 15, 1955, as stated.

Farming About With Your Farm Advisor

by CARD F. MEES

I attended a 4-H achievement meeting at Schaumburg last week end. It was gratifying to hear the years' achievement of the club being reviewed and to see the beautiful display of ribbons. Club members obtain a lot of benefits from this program. Adults in a community should take at least an evening a year to attend these meetings.

At this same meeting an exchange of Christmas gifts took place and Santa visited us. The gleam and sparkle in the eyes of those young children cannot be forgotten easily. Many times in our busy lives today, we forget our families, and what a shame it is to deprive them of such joys.

WITHIN A FEW days a membership drive for Blue Cross members will get under way. The Cook County Farm Bureau and the Cook County Truck Gardeners sponsor this project in the name of the Cook County Health Improvement Association. Members of either of these organizations are eligible for Blue Cross under the group plan providing they are under 66 years of age and do not work for any organizations that employ more than 10 people.

Blue Cross which pays hospitalization and Blue Shield which pays on medical bills are two good investments for any family. It provides for your hospitalization and doctor bills when you can least afford to pay them. Five years ago on this very day I entered Barnes hospital in St. Louis for treatment. Little did I think I would be unable to work for five weeks, but it certainly was consoling to know that I had provided a plan to take care of my hospital bill. You can do the same, if you do not have hospitalization study the plan carefully and decide for yourself.

THE PROGRAM has been planned for the Annual Vegetable Growers Schools to be held in January. You will find an interesting program for both days. Every vegetable grower in Cook County should take time out to attend these meetings. There will be a total of 15 specialists in their respective fields appearing on the program. A committee of 15 farmers and extension people planned the program for you. They spent several hours trying to arrange the best program possible.

One afternoon will be spent on marketing and handling of vegetables. There will be eight men on a panel to discuss the various phases of marketing, together with the inspection necessary to go with a good marketing program. The discussion will be open to all. This should be a most interesting meeting.

MAC SAYS

— by G. A. McElroy

JUST HOW HOT those pins can be in Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament for men January 9 at Palatine remains to be seen. One thing sure, if the weather is cold, and the expected 175 bowlers "are on," high games and 200's are likely to be a dime a dozen the way the maples have been tumbling at Hi-Way Recreation.

As if those 290 and 289 games, 680 series, and a woman's 267 weren't enough, Monday night of this week a 675 series was racked up in league play as well as a 703 match game series Sunday against two lady keglers who hit 601 and 662.

All of those high average men won't be competing in this tournament, however. It's an inter-league affair, with lesser bowlers on each squad, the same as good ones. The handicap partially evens things with the strongest team in the meet taking the event only once in three years.

Ironically, that was back in 1952, first year of the Paddock meet, when Haseman Truckers copped the marbles.

They rolled 2716 actual, 2979 gross, for top honors the only other time the men's tournament has been held at Palatine. Haseman's will be back this year. Following time Black's Funeral Home of Arlington Heights took the championship, aided by a 500 pin limit handicap. Gross was 3036. Last year it was Len & Sev's IGA with 2515 actual, 2899 gross, that placed first.

If the high games do fall, it may be up to Irv Hahnfeldt, individual high game and series champ from '52, to turn the trick. Irv's 244 and 631 have stood up in spite of 285 keglers attempting to beat it the past two years. Maybe Irv will have to break his own marks.

GEORGE SEVERANCE of Ela-Vernon, is setting a Northwest suburban conference scoring pace likely to eclipse the league mark set by Bob Nolan of Wauconda. Nolan averaged close to 24 points a game. Severance is slightly over 25 at this point with two games of 30. We do not expect anyone to challenge Severance seriously.

Ken Sirotzki of Bensenville is a great little player but lack of size limits his scoring chances and he is a member of a group which can set up few chances for him.

Bob Boyd, junior guard of the Glenbrook Spartans, will rank high in scoring but has a number of capable team mates and is himself quite a team player.

So far this season the Northwest conference has had the best basket shooting in the league's history.

A field goal percentage of 40% of attempts is not uncommon anymore. Glenbrook shot 50% and lost to Antioch because the Sequoits got 35 more shots at the basket. The greatest change in basketball in recent years is not the fact that teams play more offense but the fact that the skill of shooting baskets has improved so much.

COACH HELFRICH of Glenbrook likes Antioch's chances for getting into the "Sweet Sixteen." After playing the Sequoits he sees no one in the Northwest conference capable of staying with Coach Scott's defending champs. Coach Moylan of Palatine does not agree. He thinks Palatine can give Antioch a good run if they are in form. He will get a chance to test his theory in the first league game after the holidays when Antioch comes to the Palatine court January 7.

Coach Moylan of the Pirates is still looking for a fifth man good enough to balance his quintet.

Nesset, Eck, Schutz, and Goetz, his big four have scored 79-75-75-53 to date for the most balanced attack in the league outside the Antioch group. Antioch has 83-74-52-49-45 scored by Haviland, Floyd, Brownlee, Clarke, and Palmer. Development of a good fifth man by tournament time could make Palatine a real threat for the regional championship.

PALATINE and Arlington Heights wrestling teams take off for the holidays with unblemished records. Glenbrook in its second year has a very strong team which whipped New Trier, a team always near the top in state wrestling. Wrestling is a sport which comes along fast with good coaching and all three schools have it.

Northwest frosh-soph cage race stacks up as the tightest in many years. There are six teams among whom there is little to choose.

We think Bensenville has an excellent chance to finish on top in the frosh-soph division. They were certainly impressive beating Antioch 46-34 at Antioch for the latter's first defeat Saturday night. Five teams are tied for second place with 3-2 records behind Antioch's 4-1.

LOOK BACK to the week prior to the opening of the season and you will see that the predictions for the season in varsity basketball are shaping up that way in the present standings. The first six are as predicted with Bensenville and Grayslake positions reversed between 7th and 8th.

In Northern Illinois the best basketball conference this year are the South Suburban and the Big Eight. Lockport and Thornton, tied for the South Suburban lead undefeated have real high class teams with Kankakee and Argo not far behind.

Bloom and Blue Island also have fine ball teams. West Rockford and Elgin are probably the best in the Big Eight, always a leading cage league in state ratings.

Next week we shall devote part of this column to a review of the year 1954 in Northwest Suburban sports with special emphasis on what happened at Palatine High and Bensenville.

Deadline Nears For Men Keglers At Palatine Jan. 9

Twenty in, fifteen to go.

That sums the situation in Paddock Publications men's Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament slated for Hi-Way Recreation Sunday, Jan. 9, in Palatine.

Tournament sponsors, the sports department of the Paddock newspapers, expect 35 leagues to send entries to the tournament. As of Wednesday morning of this week, 20 have been received.

DEADLINE for entries in the men's tournament is this Saturday morning. Official entry blanks have been given to all league secretaries, along with posters giving details of the tournament.

In addition, posters and entries have been left at all participating bowling establishments, including those at Palatine, Arlington Hts., Wheeling, Mt. Prospect, Wood Dale and Bensenville.

On these entries must be names, individual averages, time request, and other pertinent data, plus the ever-important $15 covering bowling, prize fund and expenses.

COMPLETE LIST of twenty teams signing in so far is elsewhere on these sports pages. They are not separated as to exact times or starting alleys. Complete, official list of entries, including starting alleys and times of bowling, will be released in the sports pages of all eight Paddock Publications the week of January 6.

Officers of the various leagues have the final say-so determining their leagues' entries for the tournament. Paddock Publications is asking for first place teams, but in event of ties, replacements, etc., league officers will have to decide just who bowls.

THE TOURNAMENT has grown each year it has been conducted. Originally held in 1952 at Palatine, the meet was held at Arlington Heights the following January, then in Bensenville last year when Len & Sev's IGA won the event.

Last year 33 leagues sent entries. This time tournament sponsors are looking for 35 squads.

Distributed last year were $247 in cash money, five individual trophies, plus a traveling trophy. The awards at Trausch-Linden Recreation, Bensenville, and Bowlwood, Wood Dale, the past week, will be on display next week at Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes and Wheeling Bowling Lanes.

Eligible Date For Women's Teams Dec. 25

The women won't be forogtten this Christmas!

That point was certain this week as entries for the men's division of Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament poured in.

First entries for the women's half of the tournament have started trickling in, too.

FIRST PLACE teams of all women's leagues within the immediate area served by Paddock Publications as of December 25 will be eligible for the women's tournament at Arlington Heights Bowling Lanes Sunday, Jan. 16.

Deadline for these entries is Saturday, Jan. 1. Initial entries received as of Tuesday morning included Zimmer Hardware of Palatine Jinx league and Powder Blue team of Monday Blues league of Palatine.

ENTRY FEE for the women is $15 per team, including cost of bowling, prizes, registration, pin boys, foul detector, scorer and pencils.

Reid's Apparel of Bensenville is defending champ. Full details of the women's tournament can be gleaned from posters on display at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine, Arlington Heights Bowling Lanes, Mt. Prospect Bowling Lanes, Wheeling Bowling Lanes, Bowlwood Recreation in Wood Dale and Trausch-Linden Recreation in Bensenville.

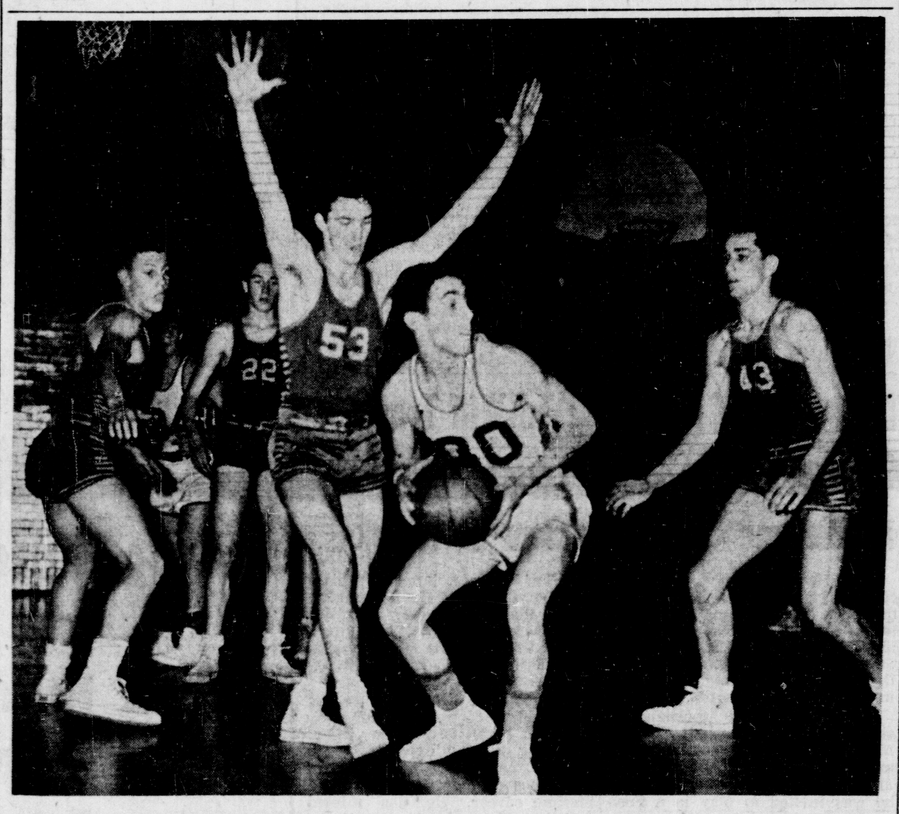

Dave Nesset (42) counted this shot for Palatine against Glenbrook Saturday night, the Pirates winning on their own court, 75-69. Crouched and ready for the rebound is Dave Schutz (40). Seen for Glenbrook are Stodder (32), Bob Boyd (22) and Ken Schultheis (33). —Staff Photo

Arlington Little League Mentioned In Trade Journal

Arlington Heights Little League program gained a bit of publicity recently when the group shot taken by Paddock Publications last summer was reprinted in the Wilson sports equipment trade journal.

Attention to the 429 boys and 20 teams in four leagues was called by the manufacturers. Outfitting of the large group was one of the larger installations ever made by the company. Bowen Hardware was the agent.

700 Series Helps The Men Beat The Girls

The men beat the women in a match game at Palatine Sunday, but it took a 700 and two 600's to do it.

That, in brief, tells the story of how Nick & Al's House league bowling squad beat Falstaff Beer girls of Chicago, including Shirley Garms of Palatine. Shirley rolled just 521 as her team hit 2846, 218 pins short of the men's 3064 actual.

HIGH BOWLER of the day was Albert Parkhurst with 703 actual. His games were 233-258-212, making Eddie Kehe's 633 and Bob Leahy's 603 look mediocre. High for the girls was June Zamis with 662, with Sylvia Fanta hitting 601.

Cancer fund was the actual winner as the hat was passed to the tune of $20.

'Hawks Win Again, Set For Tourneys

Wheeling Blackhawks won their second straight game of the season Thursday evening when they downed the Frank G. Hough company quintet, 43-27, at the Libertyville high school gym. The game was the 'Hawks final tune-up for the two holiday tournaments they entered, the Loyola Park A. A. U. holiday tourney and the Evanston sports association Christmas tourney in which the 'Hawks finished second last season.

In Thursday's game Hough's opened the scoring on lay-up shot by Shorty Boyes to take a 2-0 lead. The 'Hawks' Vic Heimsoth tied the score on a pair of penalty shots and from then on the 'Hawks moved to 26-17 half time lead, never to be headed again and come out on the long end of a short 43 to 27 score. Individual leaders for the game were Gordie Busse and Vic "Bevo" Heimsoth with eight points apiece, while the runner-up spot went to 'Hawk captain, Hans Schmidt and Hough's Priebe with 7 markers.

THE HAWKS have also completed their 1954-55 roster with addition of big 6'7" Ron Damgaard of Des Plaines. The addition of Damgaard gives the 'Hawks front line an average of over 6' 4" when coupled with Vic Heimsoth and Mel Berlin.

The 'Hawks played their first round game of the Loyola tournament Tuesday and open play in the Evanston tourney tonight. Results of games in both tourneys will appear in next week's edition.

Crystal Lake And Danville With Cardinals

by BOB PADDOCK

Arlington Heights varsity basketball team turns its attention away from West Suburban conference competition and heads for St. Edward gym in Elgin Monday and Tuesday nights with St. Edward, then either Danville or Crystal Lake the opponents.

A four team tournament, co-sponsored by St. Ed and the Lakers, is an annual affair in the Fox valley. This time it's being held at St. Edward.

GAME TICKETS for both Monday and Tuesday night sessions, with the Cardinals playing both nights, win or lose, are on sale at the local high school office this week until Friday noon, Dec. 24. No tickets will be available at the high school office after that time.

Limited seating space at St. Edward makes it advisable for fans to purchase their tickets this week for both nights. These seats are reserved and will not be available except at the door of the gym the nights of the games, after Friday noon.

Admission is $1 for adults, 60 cents for students if purchased in advance. Student price at the door will be $1.

ST. EDWARD, Arlington's opponent in the opening game at 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 27, is unbeaten through seven contests. Most recent victims were Belvidere, 5-44, and Hebron, 47-44. St. Ed is a member of Northeast Catholic league, a group not on a par with the West Suburban loop of which Heights is a member.

The other game Monday, starting at 8:30, has Danville meeting Crystal Lake. Danville has a 2-4 mark to date, beating Bradley and Catlin. They made the Sweet Sixteen tournament last year but much of that luster is now gone. Danville has lost to Champaign, Urbana, Kankakee and Decatur.

CRYSTAL LAKE has a creditable record in North Suburban league play, losing to Barrington within the league and to Dundee outside the loop. Most recent win for Crystal Lake was over McHenry Friday.

Local fans are advised to clip this paragraph telling how to reach the St. Edward gym.

Travel west on 58 to Elgin, turning southeast at the first stop light on Dundee ave., thence to route 20, turn right, down the hill, cross the bridge, turn left first stop light, up the hill, cross tracks, turn right on first street beyond tracks (Locust), drive two blocks west to Perry st., turn left, 'n there you are.

Urge Teams To Make Time Registrations For Bowling Meet

Time registrations are at a premium for the men's bowling tournament.

Sponsors are not planning to use the 10:00 shift until the forty-first entry is received. They urge teams to call in their time requests as early as possible.

The same holds true for the ladies in their tournament Jan. 16. In their case 18 teams can be handled on the first three shifts. Last year 15 squads participated. When the 19th ladies' entry comes in, then the final 8:30 shift will be used.

Palatine High Wrestlers Win Fifth In Row

Palatine's wrestling team remained undefeated in five matches as they swamped Crystal Lake Thursday, 47-5 and the frosh-sophs won 33-15. Paul Manning (95), Andrew Anderson (103), Ron Bessmer (120), Bob Fremd (127), Hans Wehner (133), Karl Schwenk (138), and Lawrence Wheeler (175) pinned their opponents. Quickest time was 30 seconds by Manning, 31 seconds by Wehner, and 43 seconds by Bessemer.

Jim McCreery won on points 4-0, Lindgren won 6-5, Dilks took a 3-1 decision, and Leonard Rohde won 5-4. Crystal Lake's only points were scored when Commons pinned Verdung of Palatine.

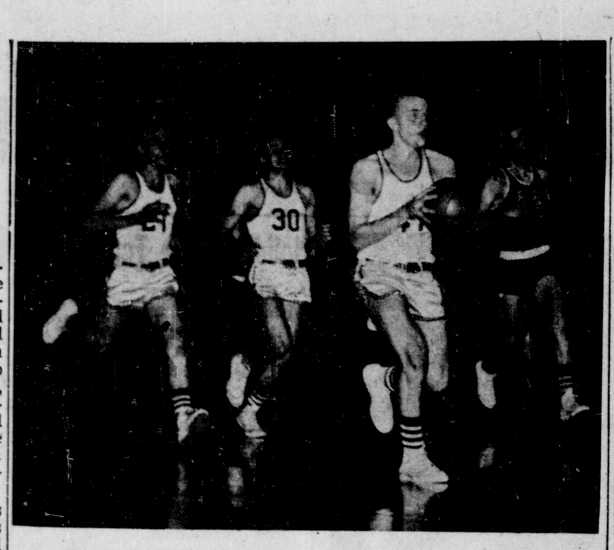

In the frosh-soph competition Pollien, Hogan, E. Bessemer, Redeker, Jasinski, and Nordin pinned their opponents while Kisek, and Dallmeyer won decisions. Jasinski, though a senior, counted for points as he wrestled a Crystal Lake boy who was a junior.

LAST TUESDAY Palatine defeated Niles township high for the second time this season 29-19 while the frosh-sophs lost 38-20. Ronald Bessemer (120) Hans Wehner (133), Harold Verdung (165) and Lawrence Wheeler (175) pinned their opponents. Jim McCreery, Bob Fremd, and John Dilks won decisions for Palatine. In the frosh-soph division all Palatine's points were won by Schollz, E. Bessemer, Nordon, and Redeker who pinned their opponents.

Not a track meet, but a basketball game was in progress in the Palatine high school gym Saturday night when the Pirates defeated Glenbrook, 75-69. Leading the race, ready to shoot, is John Goetz (41) with Palatine teammates Alan Eck (30) and Bob Kolze (21) in pursuit. Trying to catch up is Glenbrook's Bob Boyd (22). —Staff Photo

Heights Wrestlers In Holiday Tourney

Santa Claus does not have a package of rest in store for the Arlington Heights high school varsity wrestling team — he has a holiday grappling tourney at Waukegan, instead.

First round matches will start Wednesday, Dec. 29, at 7:30 p.m., with semi-finals Thursday afternoon, Dec. 30, at 2:00 and the finals at 8:00 p.m.

Competing will be Arlington, Elgin, Evanston, New Trier, Oak Lawn, Proviso, Thornton and Waukegan.

THE MEET should be a toughie, with Waukegan a strong contender for medals at many weights. The host school has a strong team this year, without one weak position. On two occasions the WTHS varsity has been divided for simultaneous duels and won both ends both times.

This time, though, Waukegan will be facing rough contenders for team honors. In fact, Arlington's Cardinals could gain its share of individual honors providing the boys are "in form." Rated the best chance to win their first bouts are Vic Carlino at 112, Ken Bredfeldt at 133, Jack Ebert at 138, Wally Mulso at 145, Johnny Heintz at 154, Floyd Burns at 175 and Bruce Wilkerson at heavyweight.

RATED SECOND, possibly, to Waukegan for the team title, though not too much is known of these teams, are Proviso, Thornton and Oak Lawn. To be awarded are a team trophy and individual medals for the first three places at each weight.

First place in each weight will count seven points toward team title, second, five, third, three and fourth, one. In addition, one point will be given for each match won. There will be a two pound weight allowance over the book the first day, and an additional two pounds the second day.

Two mats will be used through the third place matches, then just one mat for the finals.

Favor Elgin In Hinsdale Tournament

Dundee, Hinsdale, Downers Grove and Elgin will open play Wednesday, December 29, in the annual Hinsdale holiday basketball festival with both losers and winners meeting the following evening.

Elgin is favored in the interesting tourney, having compiled twelve victories in a row on the Hinsdale floor the past four years. Host school Hinsdale, though, is expected to provide the toughest competition for the Maroons.

Harvey Dickinson, athletic director, has announced the following schedule:

Wednesday, December 29
Dundee vs. Hinsdale, 7:15.
Downers vs. Elgin, 8:45.

Thursday, December 30
Consolation, 7:15.
Championship, 8:45.

Dick Hauff Continuing To Win Trophies In Quest For College Education And A Lifetime Career On The Golf Links

Dick Hauff, outstanding golfer of Arlington Heights high school the past four springs, is continuing to burn up the links while gaining a college education at Florida State university. He's home for the holidays at present, and sporting a sun tan and a smile.

Dick won three tournaments since the end of August when he hibernated to the southland, the most noted the celebrities tourney at San Francisco, California, when he was invited to play in a foursome also including movie star Dan Dailey and baseball player Alvin Dark.

DICK WON the amateur division of the celebrities meet, shooting a 67, and placed third over-all, behind the 65 shot by Ed Furgol, national open champ. Entered were 35 pros, 30 amateurs and 30 movie and TV stars.

Two other trophies earned by Dick since school started this fall include east coast amateur championship in Florida, with 69-71, for a six stroke margin; and the Lake City open with 68-70, won by four strokes.

NATURALLY, Dick already has his varsity letter on the wall, and won the university championship, hands down, shooting 68-68. Dual schedule has not begun, as yet, for Florida State, but is not likely to conflict with Hauff's tournament schedule. School authorities send Dick to every tourney possible, along with the school colors, and help him with his studies by providing tutors.

The good weather of Florida was the deciding factor in Hauff's decision to enroll at Florida State, providing a good opportunity for Dick to learn more about golf in the hopes of making the sport a lifetime career. He has missed just three days of golf since arriving on the scene at Tallahassee, except for a wrist injury which kept him idle one week.

FUTURE ACTIVITIES of Hauff include the Florida intercollegiate, national southern intercollegiate, Texas open, St. Petersburg open, and Pan-American open tournaments.

Sports articles about Dick in the Saturday Evening Post, and 17 other magazines, are slated to appear soon. Newsreel shots of Dick's foursome in the recent PGA tournament are being shown across the country. He has appeared on three TV shows in Tallahassee thus far, as well as taking part in a weekly radio show over station WEAR in Florida.

What does he discuss on these shows? You guessed it—golf.

Bensenville Frosh-Sophs Maul Wauconda, Then Beat Antioch

by MAX ZOLLNER

Bensenville's sophs, playing host to Wauconda Friday, evened their conference record at 2 and 2 by slaughtering the Bulldogs, 51-15. The junior Bisons credit their win mainly to good ball handling and use of an effective fast break.

Bensenville grabbed the lead in the first half, 23-7. In this half, Leon Langguth of the Bisons controlled the rebounding off both boards and Paul Rucker was outstanding defensively for Bensenville.

In the following period, the Bison five, getting hotter, dumped in 18 more points to take a commanding 41-11 lead at the end of the third quarter. Lars Hendriksen, big man of the Bison offense, sank 12 of the 18 tallies.

Continuing the pace, Bensenville added 10 more points the final stanza to down Wauconda, 51-15.

CONFRONTED with a tight zone defense, previously undefeated Antioch was overcome by Bensenville's frosh-soph Bisons, 46-34, Saturday on the Sequoits' floor. Lars Hendricksen of the Bisons had eight buckets and eight free throws for 24 points. Antioch's Humel shot for 15 points with 4 baskets and 7 charity tosses.

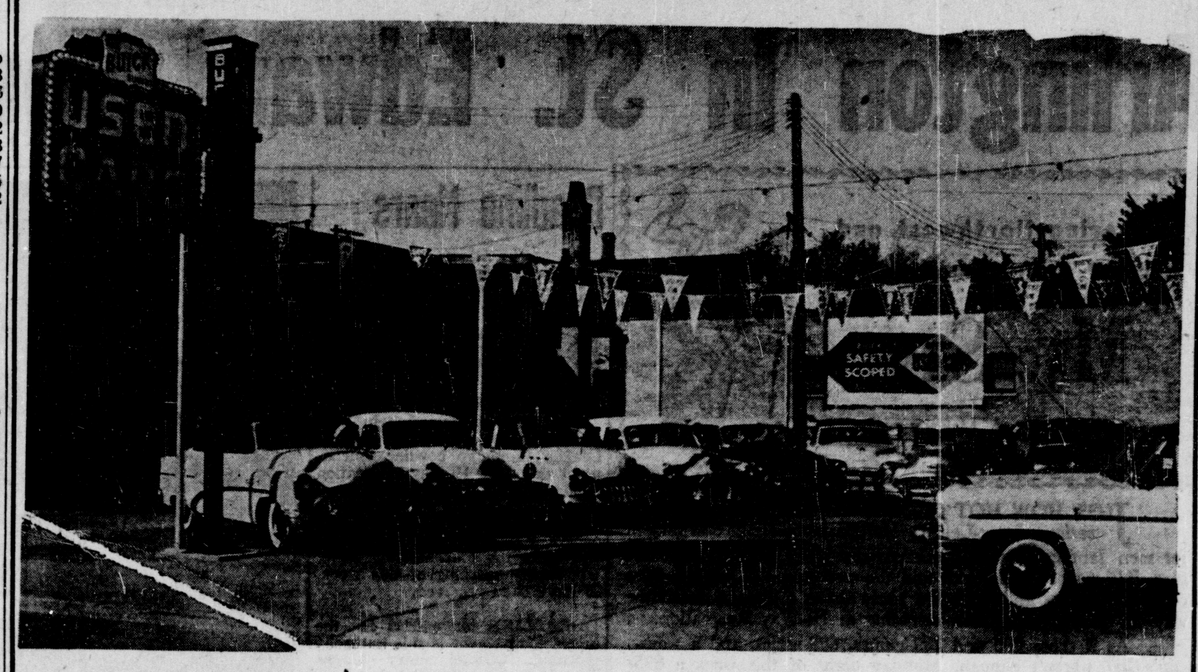

Led by Humel, the Antioch quintet edged the young Bisons 15-11 in the first quarter. Bensenville fought back, however, and had gained a 1 point advantage, 24-23, at the end of the half.

In the last half, Hendricksen went on a scoring spree and netted 16 points for Bensenville, 8 in each of the quarters. The Bison five kept increasing their lead from 34-29 at the third period until they downed the Sequoits by 12 points at game's end.

RON HOLZNAGEL, a sophomore, scored 30 points in a practice game as the four team frosh-soph league readied for the opening of league play in January.

The bowlers are now completely organized with competition slated to start after the holidays, according to intramural director Bob Hutton. Top six average boys in practice sessions were named captains, who, in turn, selected team rosters.

Captains of the teams include Bob Johnson, Roger Simon, Dick McGrath, Dave Schimmel, Don VorBroker and Jim Schipper. Each team will meet each other five once in the junior-senior cage league and bowling. Frosh-soph cagers will meet each other twice.

Arlington Cagers Improve, Lose To LaGrange, Glenbard

"Still improving, will make it yet."

That seemed to be the consensus Friday and Saturday nights as the Arlington Heights high school basketball squad dropped decisions to LaGrange, 62-55, and to Glenbard at home, 71-58. The frosh-sophs lost, too, 53-46 and 48-35.

A bad first quarter gave LaGrange an eight point lead the Lions used to advantage throughout the contest. Jack Riggs hit one from the field this period, as did John Sujack, with Dennis Striegel sinking two, plus a free throw. LaGrange, meanwhile, was making seven baskets and three charities.

THE CARDINALS came back to life the second quarter, racking up a 17-12 margin. Both Sujack and Denny Maher hit a trio of buckets apiece. That scoring punch was held in abeyance the third and fourth periods, however, as LaGrange extended its lead three points the third segment, and one more the final stanza.

Arlington hit 27% of its shots from the field, LaGrange 34%. Sujack tallied 18 for Arlington, Maher 13, Jack Riggs nine and Striegel eight. Caiazza counted 13 for LaGrange, Freisinger and Merz ten each.

AGAINST GLENBARD Saturday night on the local court the Cardinals lost by one field goal, 26-25, but free throws set the stage for the 71-58 victory by Glenbard. Heights started well, offensively, the first period with 19 points but tapered as the game went on, tallying 16, 13 and 10 points.

Therein lies the tale, as the Bards scored 22 the first period, continued with 19 and 19, then dropped to 11. Sujack led the scoring locally with nine baskets and two free throws, with Randay helping with six and three.

The winners' scoring was evenly divided with Thomas counting 19, Edwards 18, Shaus 15 and Whitehead 12.

Arlington Soph Cagers Lose To LaGrange And Glenbard

Stepinsky's three long shots in quick succession were the deciding factors in Arlington's frosh-soph loss at LaGrange Friday night as the locals fell, 53-46. Prior to that time Coach Maurice Klotz' sophomores held a 27-25 intermission lead. An 18-8 third period action sewed up the game for the young Lions, however.

LaGrange controlled the backboards, a difficult advantage to overcome, with very tall Pearson making himself heard from against Heights, particularly in the fourth quarter when the chips were down.

THE CARDINALS were able to score just two field goals the opening period, to seven for LaGrange. The locals hit six free throws to help, however. Second quarter five boys hit from the field and outscored the eventual winners, 17-11 to take a two point lead.

Scoring was fairly divided between six Arlington boys, including Bruce Bjorklund with ten, Alan Ragland with eight, Tom Jacobsen and Bill Palmer with seven, and Dan Vittum and Pat Brownell with six. High for the winners were Pearson with 16, Belholoek with 13 and Stepinsky with ten.

Arlington Wrestlers Win Double Decisions

Arlington Heights high school wrestlers copped two more double meets Thursday and Friday of last week when Elgin was sent home, 25-21 and 37-13, and York played an ideal host, 25-16 and 27-23.

The Cardinal varsity was definitely primed for Elgin Thursday. Ralph Carlino opened activities at 95 pounds with a 7-0 victory, giving the locals a 3-0 lead. Elgin came back with a pin against Deming, making it 5-3, Elgin. Vic Carlino won a 9-3 decision at 112 pounds to make it 6-5, Arlington, but Gregory lost a 5-2 decision at 120 to put Arlington behind once more, 8-6.

THE CARDINALS took a 14-8 lead on decisions by Beier and Bredfeldt, but a pin to Mickey Harris and a loss by Mulso made it 16-14, Elgin, stretched to 19-14 when John Heintz lost at 154.

Rose and Seagren of Elgin drew, making it 21-16, Elgin, going into the last two weights. Burns and Wilkerson came through with pins, however, and the meet, 26-21.

Arlington 26, Elgin 21
95—Carlino, A, beat Vellinga, E, 7-0.
103—Rocha, E, pinned Deming, A, in 3:15.
112—V. Carlino, A, beat Ransom, E, 9-3.
120—Schneider, E, beat Gregory, A, 5-2.
127—Beier, A, beat Hozier, E, 6-3.
133—Bredfeld, A, pinned Harms, E, in 3:27.
138—Winebrenner, E, pinned Harris, A, in 3:33.
145—Burnidge, E, beat Mulso, A, 3-1.
154—Demmitt, E, beat Heintz, A, 6-4.
165—Rose, A, and Seagren, E, drew.
175—Burns, A, pinned Sayers, E, in 5:44.
Heavy—Wilkerson, A, pinned Difuliro, E, in 2:40.

NILES TOOK an eight point lead Friday, then hung on 'til Coach Dick Mudge's grapplers tied things at 11-all after Bredfeldt's decision at 133 pounds. Plank's decision put the locals ahead by three, but Niles took a pin for that school's last points.

Decisions by Mulso, Rose, Burns and Wilkerson gave the victory to Heights, 26-16. The meet was surprisingly close, with each squad taking only one pin apiece. Burns and Wilkerson won lopsided decisions, 10-0 and 12-2, but couldn't gain pins.

In short, Arlington boys who normally pin didn't, while others who might have won by lopsided margins, won close decisions. Ebert was not available for either the Elgin or Niles affairs at 138 pounds, while John Heintz was held out of the Niles meet.

Arlington 26, Niles 16
95—Wright, N, beat R. Carlino, A, 5-0.
103—Solomon, N, pinned Dallstream, A, in 2:33.
112—V. Carlino, A, pinned DiGilo in 2:31.
120—Esbrook, N, beat Gregory, A, 9-4.
127—Beier, A, beat Allen, N, 4-2.
133—Bredfeldt, A, beat Wilson, N, 5-2.
138—Plank, A, beat Thomas, N, 3-2.
145—Albert, N, pinned M. Harris, A, in 3:05.
154—Mulso, A, beat Simpson, N, 5-3.

Card Frosh Split At York

Arlington Heights freshman "A" squad came from behind Saturday morning to defeat York, 48-44, on the Elmhurst court. The "B" squad lost, 36-28.

Ball handling of the "A" team appeared improved, but foot work is still shaggy most of the time. Jack Weber and Bob Lockwood both showed well under the boards. Jim Kasper, a reserve, also looked good, showing plenty of hustle and scrap, particularly at the end of the game when Heights came from an eight point deficit to win.

THE YEARLINGS were down eight, three minutes to go, when Coach "Bus" Ormsbee had his squad put on a press. The locals stole the ball and broke fast several times. Net was four field goals and four free throws, with York failing to hit once.

Seven boys saw action in this game, with the rest of the squad playing with the "B" squad. Those seven included Weber, Lockwood, Kasper, Denny Thill, Bob Mors, Greg Rose, Dean Hedberg. Others on the "A" squad include Jim Solon, Jim Peery, Bill Fischer, Sam Caltagirone, Ken Rapp.

The "B" squad played acceptable ball in losing, 36-28.

Antioch Convinces Glenbrook; Sequoits Aim For Title, 80-56

Antioch convinced Glenbrook Friday night who will win the Northwest championship by belting the Spartans, 80-56. Antioch had a 45-27 lead at the half and 65-37 starting the final period when subs took over.

Ben Floyd scored 20, Warren Brownlee had 13, Jack Palmer 12, and Mike Haviland and Fred Clarke each 10 points for the Sequoits. Bob Boyd scored 17 and Ken Schulteis 15 for Glenbrook. Antioch won the frosh-soph game 46-43.

GEORGE SEVERANCE scored 30 points for the second time this season to lead the Ela-Vernon Bears to a 64-26 win over Grayslake. Severance only played three quarters but the Bears scored 21 points in the last period without him while Grayslake was getting only five.

Three quarter score was 43-21.

SATURDAY NIGHT in a battle for second place Wauconda came from behind to tally 20 points in the last quarter and beat Ela-Vernon 58-51. Ela led 41-38 going into the final segment of the game. The score was tied at 13 at the quarter and 25 at the half. Gene Jaskot's 21 points and 17 by Ed Okpisz led the Wauconda Bulldogs.

George Severance boosted his league total to 126 points for five games by dropping in 27 but lacked help from his team mates.

GRANT BROKE into the win column Saturday night with a league record total of 86 points to 51 for hapless Grayslake. Coach Ray Collier used his whole Grant squad and 10 men broke into the scoring. Bob Bein tallied 20 and Parr dropped eight for eight from the field and got 17 points.

Heights Soph Wrestlers Top Elgin And York

Arlington's wrestling sophomores won two meets last week, easily defeating Elgin Thursday, 37-13, and edging Niles Friday, 27-23. Thursday's match was all Heights after the first four weights.

Ferry lost at 95, but Wertheimer pinned at 103 for Coach Maurice Kellogg. Leckband was pinned at 112, but Pat Harris took a decision at 120 to even things at 8-all. From then on it was all Arlington as Roger Nuensinger, Tom Thackery and Roger Farleight took decisions for the locals, and Don Plank, Tony Hansen, Ron Pratchen and Carl Klehm all pinned their men.

Arlington 37, Elgin 13
95—Reuter, E, beat Ferry, A, 9-0.

175—Theis, E, pinned Jordan, A, in :35.
Heavy—Klehm, A, pinned Clark, E, in :50.

AGAINST NILES the second year Cardinals suffered a pin at 95, then stayed behind until 127 when a decision by Nuensinger made it 11-10. Niles continued on, though, through a pin, decision and a pin, vaulting into a 23-11 lead.

The Heights grapplers then came to life. Roger Farleigh pinned Richardson in 5:45. Ron Pratchen took a 6-3 decision over Jaster. Daniel Jordan won on forfeit and Carl Klehm took a 4-0 decision for the final 27-23 victory.

Arlington 27, Niles 28
95—Feverzeig, N, pinned Gregory, A, in :58.
103—Deming, A, beat Johnson, N, 4-0.
112—LeTourneau, N, pinned Leckband, A, in 3:52.

Bensenville Scrimmage Alumni Next Week

Basketball activity for the Bensenville varsity Bisons has slowed somewhat, with no regularly scheduled games until after the holidays. Practices will continue however, during the alleged holidays.

A scrimmage between the high school and alumni of the past two years will probably be held Thursday, Dec. 30, to keep the local five in shape. Expected to be playing for the alums, among others, and the colleges they attend are:

Dick Szymonik, guard, DeKalb.
Bill Long, forward, Beloit.
Pedro Cuatrecasus, guard, Princeton.
Norm Kozak, forward, Elmhurst.
Bert Heuer, center.

Palatine Defeats Grant, 62-54, Glenbrook, 75-69

Palatine's varsity cagers defeated Grant 62-54 and Glenbrook 75-69 last weekend and finished conference play until after the holidays with a 4-1 record good for a tie with Wauconda for second place. The next Pirate opponent will be undefeated Antioch on the home court January 7.

At Grant the varsity game was delayed a half hour when one of the basket rims broke during practice and a welder had to be brought in to repair the damage. Palatine started slowly trailing 12-9 at the quarter, 28-27 at the half, and 40-39 going into the final period. It was then that the Pirates broke loose for 23 points to Grant's 14 and won going away. Eck and Goetz each got eight points and Schutz seven in the final winning drive.

Alan Eck scored 17, Dave Schutz 15, and John Goetz 14 for Palatine. Bob Bein scored 16 and Denny Hodge 10 for Grant. Palatine got 20 field goals in 47 shots and Grant 20 out of 56. Palatine made 22 free throws to Grant's 14.

SATURDAY NIGHT in a free scoring game Palatine beat their rival, the Glenbrook Spartans, 75-69. The score was very close until just before the half when the Pirates spurted into a 10 point 41-31 lead. They extended the margin to as much as 16 points at one time in the second half but the Spartans rallied in the closing minutes to cut the margin to three points with two minutes to go. Dave Schutz iced the game with two quick baskets just when Palatine fans were beginning to get the jitters.

Alan Eck had a big night making nine baskets in 20 tries from the field and seven of eight free throws for 25 points. Dave Schutz hit nine of 15 from the field and wound up with 22 points Dave Nesset, most improved Palatine player, scored 16 with seven out of 13 from the field. Bob Boyd scored 19 and Stodder 18 for Glenbrook. Palatine made 28 field goals in 63 shots and 19 out of 34 free throws. The game set a record for the new Palatine gym with 144 points for the two teams an average of 4½ points a minute.

Bensenville Loses 'Closie' To Wauconda, Falls To Antioch

by ELI WHITNEY

Bensenville Bisons lost another close one Friday. When the visiting Wauconda Bulldogs outscored them, 52-48.

It was Wauconda's game all through the first period. Since Bensenville had Ken Sirotzki, the shortest first stringer on the team, at center, the Bulldogs found the rebounding situation in their favor and led 16-12 at the end of the first quarter.

BENSENVILLE COACH Frank Novatny then put 6'4" Frank Zollner in at center and moved Sirotzki to his more preferred position of guard. This added height, plus some close ball watching on the defense, profited Bensenville during the second period. With only a half minute left in the first half the score stood 25 all. Wauconda's right guard Bob Pintozzi sank a free throw before the buzzer to give the Bulldogs a one point lead at intermission.

Except for once in the third period Wauconda managed to keep a small edge over the Bisons. The exception was a lay-up shot by Joe Masotti, guard, and a following jump shot scored by forward Phil Johnson which gave the Bisons a one point lead. The Bulldogs led, 41-37. At the end of the third period.

DURING THE FINAL quarter Wauconda slowed the pace down considerably making many of their baskets by feeding the sphere into forward Gene Jaskot or center Ed Okpisz. The final tally, 52-48, Wauconda.

The high scorer for Wauconda, Ed Okpisz, made nine baskets and 1 of three free throws. For Bensenville, Joe Masotti made 16 points on seven field goals and two of five free throws.

THE FIRST PLACE Antioch Sequoits thrashed the Bensenville cagers Saturday 75-32 on the Antioch court.

Sequoits quickly started a rally which didn't stop until the final gun. By the end of the first quarter the score was 16-7, Antioch.

During the second period Antioch really showed it's stuff by racking up 23 more points and holding the Bensenville quintet down to a three point gain. The score at intermission, 39-10, Antioch.

IN FIRST HALF most of the scoring was divided between two Sequoits, Mike Haviland and left forward Palmer. Haviland made 6 baskets of which 5 were set shots of 20 to 25 feet in length. Bisons stopped this by guarding him more closely during the second half.

The Antioch five steadily increased the margin by which they were winning. They gained 18 points in each of the last two quarters while Bensenville achieved a total of 22 points through the second half.

HIGH SCORER of the game was Bensenville's Ken Sirotzki who tallied 22 points on 7 baskets and 8 of 11 free throws. For the five conference games Sirotzki has a free throw average of 73 per cent.

Antiochs Mike Haviland scored 20 points on eight field goals and four of six free throws. Antioch scoring was divided among nine men while Bensenville scoring was counted by five men.

Palatine Sophs Beat Grant, Fall To G'brook

PAL SOPHS—LUD

Palatine frosh-sophs split a pair of games last weekend beating Grant 39-37 on Friday and losing at home to Glenbrook on Saturday 40-37. The results of the weekend of playing left the Pirates tied with Bensenville, Grayslake, Ela-Vernon, and Glenbrook with 3-2 records. Antioch lost to Bensenville but still maintained first place with a 4-1 record.

At Grant Friday night Palatine trailed 12-9 at the quarter but all five Palatine players scored in the second period for 19 points to gain a 28-18 lead. The second half was a desperate Palatine effort to keep Grant from overtaking them.

In a very close finish Bruce King, freshman forward, scored the basket which kept Palatine on top 39-37. Roy Hahnfeldt scored 11 points, Pat Glynn had eight and Dave McClung six for Palatine. Grenell had 12 for Grant.

SATURDAY NIGHT Palatine lost a chance to tie for the league lead with Antioch as they fell to Glenbrook, 40-37. A halftime lead of 25-19 was just too much for Palatine to overcome, though they were right on the heels of the Glenbrook team all the final quarter.

Hahnfeldt scored 13, Glynn nine, Segebrecht eight, and McClung seven for the losing Palatine team. Sawyer scored 15 and Lind 13 for Glenbrook.

Home From Sea Trip

Robert C. Heiden Jr., seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Heiden of 626 N. Harvard, Arlington Heights, aboard the USS Abbott was scheduled to arrive at Newport, Rhode Island, Dec. 18, completing a tour of duty in the Far East and a 'round-the-world cruise with destroyer division 242.

The destroyers left Newport in June and transited the Panama Canal, stopping at San Diego, Cal., and Pearl Harbor on their way to the Far East.

While in the Orient, the ships operated as part of a fast carrier Task Force. They took part in the search and rescue operations of the British Cathay airliner, shot down by Chinese Communists off Hainan Island last July.

They returned to their homeport via Singapore, Suez and the Mediterranean Sea.

In Texas

Pfc. Herman J. Freise, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil H. Freise, Rte. 1, Palatine, recently joined the 1st armored division at Fort Hood, Texas.

"Old Ironsides," the first armored division organized in the U.S., won fame for its World War II fighting in Africa and Italy. Combat readiness is now maintained by intensive training.

Freise, a driver in the 1st Transportation and Supply Battalion, entered the army in October, 1953, and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

In Texas

David Wood, formerly from Arlington Heights, is now stationed at San Antonio, Texas, in the air force and would be happy to hear from his friends at "home."

His address is A. B. David Wood, AF 135 19623, FLT. 1209, Box 1502, Lackland A.F.B., San Antonio, Texas.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

We have just had an advance hearing of a record album we consider to be one of the greatest ever made, and we hasten to tell you about it in time to suggest that you add it to your disc library this Christmas. Perfection is a difficult thing to achieve, but this new two-disc Angel long-playing album has attained it indeed!

By this praise, we refer to the just-issued recording of Verdi's sublime "Manzoni Requiem," performed with glorious conviction and tonal beauty by the world-famed La Scala orchestra and chorus under the baton of Victor de Sabata. Verdi wrote this masterpiece in tribute to the memory of Alexander Manzoni, Italy's greatest novelist and author of "I Promesi Spossi." It is undeniably the most gripping, moving music ever penned.

This Requiem eloquently sets forth the devout Verdi's impressions of death, man's fear of it, and the conquest of that fear by unswerving faith. It matters not at all what your religious beliefs may be: you cannot hear this towering score without being profoundly stirred to the very core of your being.

Urania provides a delectable treat in the 12-inch pairing of the Third and Sixth Symphony by seldom-heard but very lovely Franz Schubert, music of poetic beauty and abounding in soaring melody. These works are splendidly interpreted by the Concerts Colonne Orchestra under the direction of George Sebastian, one of Europe's most sensitive and penetrating conductors. Fine hi-fi sound!

At Culver Stockton

Warren Baldocchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Baldocchi, 315 S. Hale, Palatine, is home for a three weeks' Christmas vacation from Culver-Stockton college, Canton, Mo. The vacation began December 21 and will end January 3.

Warren is a freshman at Culver-Stockton and was on the football squad.

At Ripon

A total of 185 Ripon college students were pledged to fraternities and sororities last week Of the total, 66 girls pledged sororities and 119 men pledged fraternities. Five sororities and seven fraternities received the pledges in installation ceremonies during the weeek.

Dale Johnson, 626 S. Belmont, Arlington Heights, pledged Theta Chi.

At Illinois Wesleyan

Neal Berlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Berlin, 256 West Wilson, Palatine, was recently elected treasurer of the independent men's organization at Illinois Wesleyan university, Bloomington. Mr. Berlin is a freshman at the University majoring in business.

At Illinois College

Hilltop Players of Illinois college, Jacksonville, will present the old fashioned melodrama "Nick of the Woods; or Telie the Renegade's Daughter" in the authentic old-time style as part of the 125th anniversary celebration of the college. This play is a genuine piece of American folklore written and originally performed in the famous Bowery theatre in New York in 1838. The Hilltop Players will be among the first to bring it back to life.

The role of Telie, the Indian maiden who gives her life for love, is portrayed by Frances Zollner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zollner, R 2, Box 278, Ellis avenue, Bensenville. Miss Zollner, a graduate of Arlington Heights high school with the class of 1952, is a junior on the Illinois college campus.

Edible Coal

An edible fat, called "speiserfett" was produced in pre-war Germany in a process in which paraffin was obtained by hydrogenizing coke from coal.

Lessons In.... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "He joined the two ends together." Omit "together"; it is redundant.

Do not say, "The police thought I to be he." Say, "The police thought me to be him."

Do not say, "I have much leisure time." Omit "time," as "leisure" means "time free from employment."

Do not say, "I've got to write some letters." It is better to avoid the use of "got" in this sense. Say, "I have to (or, must) write some letters."

Do not say, "We should have regretted to have seen you go." Say, "We should have regretted to see you go."

Do not say, "Such action is nothing else but folly." Say, "is nothing else than folly."

Words Often Mispronounced

Long-lived and livelong. Pronounce the i in "long-lived" as in life, and the i in "livelong" as in lift.

Dolce (soft; sweet). Pronounce dol-cha, o as in dole, a as in chase, accent first syllable.

Clique. Pronounce as though spelled "cleek."

Gneiss (a kind of rock). Pronounce as though spelled "nice."

Lascivious. Pronounce la-siv-i-us, a as in at, both i's as in it, accent second syllable.

Cum laude (with praise). Pronounce kum-la-dee, u as in cut, a as in ah, e as in me unstressed, accent second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Jeopardize; observe the eo, pronounced as "jepp." Ptarmigan (a grouse); observe the pt, although the p is silent in the pronunciation. Climactic (pertaining to a climax); climatic (pertaining to climate). Dingy (dull; tarnished); dingey (a small boat). Fain (anxious; desirous); fane (a sanctuary); feign (to dissemble). Idle (inactive); idol (image); idyl (short poem).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Amplitude; the state of being ample; largeness; fullness. "Let us consider the amplitude of space."

Tensive; giving the sensation of tension, stiffness, or contraction. "He suffered a tensive pain in his back."

Fraught; filled, laden. "The situation was fraught with evil."

Precarious; uncertain; not firmly established. "His position in politics has become somewhat precarious."

Compunction; uneasiness due to a sense of guilt; remorse. "He felt no compunction about discharging his employee."

Implacable; unwilling to forgive; relentless. "His manner of dealing with his associates was implacable."

Lake County Going Residential: Survey

Change of Lake county from agriculture to residential is a strong trend revealed in an agricultural census completed last week.

In the past four years there has been a 15 per cent reduction in farms and a 30 per cent increase in rural dwellings. Many large farms have been subdivided.

Local Small Firms Win Government Orders

Firms in Skokie, Highland, Morton Grove, Mount Prospect, and Waukegan have been awarded government orders under the Small Business Administration's program of assisting small business to obtain a large share of government contracts, William H. Kelley, Chicago regional director of the SBA, said this week.

American Relay & Controls, Inc., Skokie, won an $11,414 contract for armature relays: Basler Electric Co., Highland, won a $241, 146 contract for motors; George Henry Co., Morton Grove, won a $30,037 contract and another $50,397 contract for manifold tubes; Illinois Range Co., Mount Prospect, secured a $24,137 contract for galley equipment; Rand-McNally & Co., Skokie, won a $473 contract for school supplies; Service Cleaners, Waukegan, won contracts for laundry and dry cleaning service for $13,592 and $800, and Silver Skillet Brands, Inc., Skokie, won a $45,189 contract for chili con-carne.

The SBA was created by Congress in July 1953 to assist small businesses in obtaining a fair share of government orders for goods and services. The agency's functions also include financial and management assistance.

Contracts totaling $17,710,633 were awarded during August, September and October to small firms in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin, Kelley announced. They were awarded under the SBA's program in cooperation with the Defense Department.

Children's Own Clothes Rack Teaches Them To Be Neat

Children will more likely hang up their clothes if they have their own hangers and a place for caps. This simple rack hangs from the closet pole at a convenient height for children. And you can still hang coats or sweaters on the main bar above the children's pole.

Make up the long bar first, by twisting and bending it as shown. The second bar bolts to the side of the main bar. Hooks on the ends of the bars support the pole.

Hooks for hanging caps can be bent out of the same bar stock and bolted to the sides of the triangular main frame as shown.

Drill 1" dia. holes in a wood block for the boot rack. Insert cut aluminum tubes into the bored holes.

Reynolds Do-It-Yourself aluminum is available at hardware stores.

I Remember Santa

My earliest recollection of Santa Claus is of a laughing man with long white whiskers who wore a red suit . . . I lived in a small Kansas town where "store" Santas were unknown and such live ones as existed were on a strictly voluntary basis . . . This one—driving a team of horses (instead of deer) hitched to a four-seater swan-shaped sleigh, pulled in from a snowy, crunchy road—and with much jingle and jangle, stomped his way up to the front porch and then into the "parlor" where a Christmas tree stood in one corner decorated with candles, homemade cranberry-strings and pop-corn balls . . . Central heating was unknown—but the heat from the ising-glassed stove which sat in one corner of the dining room, poured in through double doors (usually closed in winter) and one of those "double-globed" handpainted lamps glowed brightly on top of the piano.

I get a feeling of "darkness" so I'm sure the time must have been late afternoon or evening, and other than my parents and baby sister—I cannot remember who else was present . . . certainly my Grandmother was there—and possibly others. This I do not recall—but what really stands out is that Santa handed over to me a small hand-made rocking chair, gaily decorated in bright colors . . . Now why I was so delighted, escapes me . . . I cannot remember of wanting—or ever asking—for a rocking chair—but I suppose that having something for my sole and exclusive use—was the reason for the thrill . . . Did we eat afterwards . . . were there other gifts? . . . Memory blanks out . . . I'm sure Santa disappeared and shortly thereafter, my Grandfather appeared . . . But the rocking chair is what I vividly remember and even today, I could draw out every line of it! . . . This scene was repeated on later holiday occasions and in time I linked up my thin grandfather to the fat and robust Santa! . . . My mother must have confirmed my suspions and after that it became a "game" played for the benefit of small sister—and still later, for a small brother.

I remember church Christmas programs (even participating in one ghastly affair where a piece of my underwear dropped off at a critical moment) and the bags of candy and nuts handed out to every child . . . and oranges were extra special . . . And the Christmas morn when we found the "morning-glory" horn and cylindrical records on the talking machine . . . and there was a Caruso record and "Waiting on the Levee—waiting for the Robert E. Lee."

And I remember my first automobile ride in my Grandfather's Studebaker whose rear wheels were big, like buggy wheels . . . and I remember the metropolitan papers ("fat," even in those days) and my Dad clipping out news items for his newspaper — and lovely times when I shared experiences with Maggie and Jiggs, Mutt and Jeff, Hairbreath Harry, The Time Killers.

During those early years of the 20th Century, Edison was readying the incandescent lamp, the Wright brothers were taking to the air, Ford was experimenting . . . they, and many others, were setting the stage for the Industrial Age . . . All my grandparents had pioneered, getting free Kansas land (that was what many young couples did in the late 1800's to get a "stake") and actually only Arizona and New Mexico were left as undeveloped territories; I believe they achieved statehood in about 1902 . . . An era of MAKE IT YOURSELF—and self-sufficiency faded away . . . but I do remember the rocking chair—and an ageless, timeless Santa.

Maybe that is why, in our Studio—where we seek to recapture and dramatize the feeling for Arts-and-Crafts—you will find a bigger-than-life Santa head made out of papier mache—or an original figurine bust of a jolly St. Nick with twinkly eyes! . . . Carrying out the theme for window, mantel or table decorations are candles—in the shape of dear little deers—and no matter how cramped for space, you could find room for a 12" candle, cast in the form of a Christmas tree (green and white) which can be left as is—or decorated in many imaginative ways

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Somewhere, not long ago, I heard someone quote a statement attributed to a department store executive (probably apocryphal) which was a complaint that "even the churches are horning in on Christmas!"

The Christian churches have had something to do with Christmas for a long time. This is a day on which we remember One who was born to set men free from domination by their fellow men. He was born to free men from the tyranny of materialism, from slavery to sin. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus," said the angel, "because he will save His people from their sins."

QUITE EARLY in the life of the church, it was realized that even spiritually free men and women need occasions in their religious life. The birthday of the Master was traced back, and it was realized that it came somewhere near the time of the calendar when the northern European pagans had celebrated their Yule festival.

Some of these pagan festivals were thus "baptized in Christ." And this was a good thing. It has never been the task of a missionary church to change a society's complete way of life. It is a missionary task to transform the underlying nature of a society's way of living.

One of our recurrent problems as we attempt to "put Christ back into Christmas" is our sense of satisfaction with ourselves. Many of us feel no need for a transformation of the underlying nature of society. We think our coefficient of goodness and righteousness is pretty high.

WE HAVE little sense of judgment. So what started as a simple recognition — a few shepherds from the hillside, a few men of wisdom, and a simpe peasant family in a crude stable—has been changed into a frenzied scramble. Frequently it is expensive beyond measure—both in money and personal energy.

This appears too late for you to slow down your expenditure of time or energy. One can only suggest that you go to your church, Christmas Eve or Christmas morning. Kneel or bow with your fellow-worshippers, saying, "God be merciful to me a sinner, for I have come close to confusing the great Gift with the tinsel and wrappings of the gifts."

Then, on the day after Christmas, when the debris of ribbons been carted out to the incinerator, and paper and broken toys has position of Mary in the Garden, you may not find yourself in the "They have taken away my Lord and I do not know where they have laid Him."

About Your Health

"Oh! for a good night's sleep!" How often have you heard the remark and, indeed, made it yourself? Why? Because you arose from bed feeling tired, restless, and full of tension, and feeling too, perhaps, you hadn't had any rest at all. How much sleep should you have? It varies in individuals, but an average of eight hours is a good yardstick, the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society points out.

What is sleep? The dictionary defines it as that period of rest for the body and mind, during which volition and consciousness are in partial or complete abeyance and the bodily functions partially suspended.

WHILE THE required hours of sleep vary in individuals, the rest is essential to good health. Some persons fare very well on a few hours of sleep, while others require more than the average eight. The type of sleep also plays a role in the amount of rest. A restless sleep, interrupted frequently by fitful periods of wakening, is not conducive to good repair of body tissues.

A good, sound sleep provides complete recovery from previous fatigue. Less than the conventional seven or eight hours of sleep proves, in most cases, wearing. The result is not only a haggard face but a strained disposition.

THERE ARE MANY persons who, otherwise normal, believe they require more hours of sleep, anywhere from ten to twelve hours. As a rule, the healthy person who wants an unusual amount of sleep is not suffering from mental exhaustion, but from lack of exercise and sluggish digestion. In fact there are some authorities who believe that oversleeping is just as bad as overeating.

Since sleep is essential to good health, giving the body opportunity to rest emotionally and physically, every effort should be made to induce body-building hours of slumber. Good sleeping habits should be established. Freeing the mind of all care and worry is one step. Problems cannot be solved by restless thrashing about in bed. A mind, refreshened by a quiet sleep can cope with the exigencies of everyday life with more logical application.

ROOM TEMPERATURE is important in sleep. A temperature that is too warm or too cold for the individual can be an obstacle. Fresh air is important, but this does not mean that the sleeping room should be exposed to cold blasts of winter temperatures. Bed clothing should be comfortable as should sleeping apparel. The type of sleeping garment is an individual matter. There are some persons who like woolen pajamas, for example, while others actually prefer to sleep "raw."

Sleep inducers should be avoided. These are but crutches for a normal pattern of sleep. Many sleeping pills and powders, unless taken definitely under medical supervision, are habit-forming. The user depends on the sleep inducer for rest instead of seeking medical help to free him of his insomnia.

Xmas Fires Took 23 Lives Just Last Year

One day last year 23 persons died as a result of fire.

In Flat Rock, Mich., a mother and four children . . . burned to death in their home.

In Gloucester, Mass., — three young brothers . . . trapped by flames in their bedroom.

In Columbus, Miss., — 7-month-old twins . . . when fire and explosion destroyed a tenant farm house.

In fire's elsewhere 13 others died.

The day? Christmas, 1953.

THE NEXT DAY and the day after 60 more persons lost their lives in fires. The total for the holiday week-end, according to the Associated Press, was 83.

The cause: The gayly-lighted Christmas tree? Holiday decorations of paper and tinsel? Defective wiring? A discarded cigarette?

Or was it just carelessness?

Whatever the cause, the fact remains that the Christmas tree and holiday decorations are, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, potential fire hazards and caution should be taken in their selection in the home, and maintenance.

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money." — H. C. Paddock, 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

December 23, 1904

William Behrens, son of Henry Behrens who was born on the family farm near Wheeling 27 years ago, drowned December 8 when he accidentally fell into the reservoir on his 160-acre farm.

Carpenters are now working on the roof of the new Palatine Masonic Temple.

Frederecke Gaede and Fred Bluhm were married by the Rev. Hoffmeister Friday evening in the home of the groom's parents in Palatine.

Fred Ward, Arlington Heights, tucked his family in for the winter this week and then left for Minnesota where he is a cook in a lumber camp.

Rev. Father Royer says a Catholic church will be built in Arlington Heights next spring.

Ed Winkelmann is having the Madison house in Arlington Heights equipped with a hot water heating plant.

Forty Years Ago

Christmas, 1914

The supply of milk at the Roselle bottling plant is still increasing with a total of 64 patrons now being handled.

Moving picture shows at Arlington hall—two big features—still 10 cents and 15 cents.

Mrs. Fred Bartels, the former Ida Mess of Bensenville, died in her Wheaton home December 16 after a brief illness. She was 43 years old.

The following pupils of the Highland Grove school were present everyday during November: Alma and Tillie Frost, Amanda Heims, Edna and Luella Othmer, Minnie Plote, Arthur Mensching and Walter Osterhaut.

Eight inches of snow on the ground should be more than enough to make for good sleighing and skating during the holidays.

Mrs. M. Harper who recently bought the old Schminke homestead near Wheeling plans to build a large hotel and clubhouse there on the banks of the Des Plaines river.

Thirty Years Ago

December 26, 1924

Arlington Heights may follow Mount Prospect in joining a upwards of $300,000 which will settle for all time the drainage problems in the area. With the approval of the court, the farmers along Weller creek are about to lay 18 miles of drain tileage to service some 11,000 acres.

Mrs. Frederick Kuhs, a resident of Arlington Heights since 1875 after homing to America from her home in Germany 10 years before, died December 14 after suffering a stroke. She was 75 years old.

William Schenbeck, a resident of Arlington all his life, died in his home in the village after a prolonged illness December 19. He was 55.

Posted for special scholastic honors as a junior student at Northwestern university is Ethel M. Pierce, Roselle.

Arlington Heights secured its road pavement work during the past year at a cost of $2.58 a square yard which is well below the average price paid by Illinois communities. Palatine, on the other hand, was near the bottom of the list with a price of $2.70 to $3 per square yard, according to state reports.

Sixteen Arlington Heights men and five from Palatine gave their lives in war action during the past year, records on file at the news office showed. In addition, Mount Prospect and Wheeling each lost one resident.

Julius Heimsoth, who has operated a gas truck from Arlington Heights the past 18 years, died suddenly December 22 while on the job. He was 45 years old.

DuPage county supervisors passed a tax levy of $272,763—$65,000 below the amount adopted a year ago—and a budget amounting to $756,866—a drop of $7,000 from the figure approved in 1943.

August Holtz, Arlington Heights, died Christmas eve after a serious illness of two weeks. An employee of the North Western railway for 42 years, he retired nine years ago at the age of 70.

Pfc. John W. Riley, Bensenville, was killed in action December 4 somewhere in France, according to a message received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Riley, Tuesday.

This was the "big story" in a Chicago newspaper on Feb. 16, 1889.

Maine is Blown Up

At a quarter of 10 o'clock this evening a terrible explosion took place on board the United States cruiser Maine in Havana harbor.

Many were killed or wounded.

All the boats of the Spanish cruiser Alfonso XII are assisting.

As yet the cause of the explosion is not apparent.

The wounded sailors of the Maine are unable to explain it.

It is believed that the cruiser is totally destroyed.

The explosion shook the whole city. The windows were broken in all the houses.

The correspondent of the Associated Press says he has conversed with several of the wounded sailors and understands from them that the explosion took place while they were asleep, so that they can give no particulars as to the cause.

Susan B. Anthony's Birthday

Mrs. John R. McLean was hostess today at an unusual and interesting society event at which a number of distinguished ladies were entertained. A beautiful luncheon was given to celebrate the 78th anniversary of the birth of Miss Susan B. Anthony, the great suffragist leader, who is now presiding at the convention for that cause in this city. There were forty covers laid in all. Many of the guests were the prominent suffrage leaders now in the city.

Letters of courtship as conducted in the letter writers published in 1863 and now on file in the Palatine public library. (From a lady to her lover, refusing a present)

Dear Charles:

I herewith return the present you were kind enough to send me, and I trust you will not be offended at my doing so. I do not consider it by any means proper for young females to receive presents from gentlemen, even though under a mutual engagement. It is upon this principle only, that I refuse your gift. Reserve, therefor, such testimonials of affection till I become your happy wife; then, indeed, I shall receive them with rapture from the hand of a beloved husband. I am, my dear Charles,

With the most faithful love,
Ever your own.

Bits O' Business

Wholesale prices fell .2 per cent in the last week reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Farm prices were off 1.1 per cent ... Steel production in the week ended December 4 hit 80.5 per cent ... The Department of Agriculture forecast a 4 per cent decline in farm income in 1955.

Santa found a willing customer in this youngster as Rolling Meadows greeted the white bearded, children's favorite Sunday. The new subdivision of hundreds of homes between Arlington Heights and Palatine is sporting plenty of Christmas spirit in lights and decorations. Not one of the homes existed 15 months ago, but Santa easily found the community by sighting over the race track grandstand. —Staff Photo

There Is A Santa Claus

A New York newspaper more than a century ago wrote this historic editorial in answer to a little girl's querry, "Is there a Santa Claus?":

Dear Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours, man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unsee and unseeable in the world.

You may tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, romance and love can push aside that curtain and view the supernatural beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! He lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Children are God's apostles, sent forth, day by day to preach of love, and hope and peace.

Scrubwoman Quizzed On Baby Abandonment Case In Libertyville

Mrs. Bessie M. Vaughan, 34, of Libertyville, is being held by State's Attorney Robert C. Nelson in connection with the abandonment of a baby girl only a few hours old at the kitchen door of Condell Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Vaughan is charged with abandonment of the child and practicing midwifery without a license. The baby was found lying in a cardboard box, swathed in diapers and a blanket with her umbilical cord cut with a sharp instrument but not tied.

The hospital scrub woman told police that she was picked up by a man and woman who delivered the baby in the car and then drove with the couple to Condell where the man placed the baby inside the kitchen. This was one of several versions which Mrs. Vaughan has offered authorities, including claims that she is the mother although medical examinations have determined that would have been impossible.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Well, now that the Christmas rush is nearing its close, we letter carriers are beginning to heave sighs of relief. The mountains of parcels and seas of letters which have almost got the best of us are again on the wane. Christmas, with its noisy, blatant loudspeakers, in stores and on the streets, commercialism, gift buying, planning for family get-togethers are almost over. Only the hectic automobile trips to relatives, or preparation to greet visiting friends or relatives, the cooking of the Christmas dinner, its eating, drunkenness and aching bellies are left to be disposed of.

In all of the excitement, hustle and bustle, overeating, overdrinking, sensuality, speeding, death on the highway, jealousy over gifts exchanged and other usual Christmas misfortunes, I wonder just how much of the real meaning of Christmas will manage to make itself evident?

* * *

HOW MANY millions will go through this Christmas with never a thought about Jesus, the Babe in Bethlehem's manger? How many will give the greatness of this day the sacred reflection and spiritual reverence it deserves? Does Christmas mean anything to you? The birth of Christ in Bethlehem? Or is it just another historical story related in Scripture, a myth, mere foolishness, a fable for children? To millions it will mean little more, even in our United States. But to you? Will it all be just a headache, a morning after? Or will it be real? Does it thrill you, inspire you with hope that a Savior will be born?

"....."Peace on earth, good will to men!" But what goes on in your heart right now?

THERE WILL never be peace on earth nor men of good will where material values exceed spiritual ones; or while selfishness, hatred and sin are stronger in men's lives than love, and Christ. That is one of the things we should think about this Christmas. You can't experience the true meaning of Christmas without getting down on your knees and talking it over with God. You can't know Christmas until you know Christ.

Merry Christmas

A Merry Christmas to all our former friends and neighbors of Arlington Heights. We hope to be back to visit again in June of '55 after school is closed. We do love California but miss our favorite city very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nelosn and Son, Jack, formerly of Dryden Place Arlington Heights. Now living at 155 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Arcadia, California.

Owners' Rights

It is not the septic tanks alone that could blight this Scarsdale Park Manor section of a better grade of residential construction. Arlington Heights Park Manor subdivision has never had any prefabricated homes. Further, the mortgage agreements between mortgagee and mortgagor clearly state such parties shall not knowingly permit or allow any act that would devalue any such mortgagee's property or properties, lest such mortgage become invalid.

SINCE MANY of the homes in this community bear such mortgages it becomes the property and mortgage owner's responsibility to reject such low cost housing as being undesirable and devaluating and illegaly in accord with the Illinois and Cook county approved mortgage charter laws.

Therefore it would appear in a clarified construction authority's mind that before such low cost housing permits could be issued consultation of the present property and mortgage owners would become a necessary legal action before issuing permits. Likewise an intellectual point on septic tanks could not be encountered effectively without responsibility of illegal aggression to devaluate or invalidate, thus avoiding authorative responsibilities, consequence, etc.

UNDER CONSTRUCTION on lot 11, block 13 of Arlington Heights Park Manor and adjoining Scarsdale on the east at Rockwell, is what is known as National prefab No. 1735 type house. It is reported there will be a group of 30 erected, some on the east side of Dryden ave., from Fairview, south to Central. This area lies immediately east of the Scarsdale and Laurinwood subdivisions.

All of these property and mortgage owners, whether or not the property is developed, bear the aforementioned responsibility and grievance. I invite you to publish this letter to notify property owners of their responsibilities in any future acts. A further appeal is made that such property owners east of Dryden to Arthur ave. and south of Fairview to Central rd., have this area annexed to the village of Arlington Heights wherein the local legal authorities could intervene and share the property owners' and mortgage owners' responsibilities, including fire, water, sewage, street clearance, etc., as well as invasion on owner's rights.

The 'Uneven Side'

Referring to the letter published in the Fence Post several weeks ago, referring specifically to the "No Parking Signs" at 104 N. Pine, stating that at least four cars could park at that spot.

I am the owner of the property at 103 N. Pine. The entire street, on the "uneven" side, has "No Parking" signs posted at various intervals. The "even" side of the street has a sgn at the south end of each block reading "No Parking From Here to the Corner."

It is necessary for some space to be alloted on each block for the use of delivery men; i.e., milk, food, oil, furniture, clothing, household items, etc. The alloted parking spaces on the west side of the street are all taken up by commuters. It would be unfair for delivery men to park their trucks on the east side of the street, because traffic would be "bottlenecked." Furthermore, if all-day parking were allowed right to the corner, a traffic hazard would result because cars traveling south would have their view obstructed near the intersection south and east to the park in the summertime would have their view obstructed near the intersection.

No one "rates" these signs, as claimed by the author of the above mentioned letter. Instead, they are a sane, sensible truck-delivery solution for home owners on the entire block and also prevent an unnecessary traffic hazard.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

Now that Megan's birthday is over, we can concentrate on Christmas (how inconsiderate of her to be born right in the midst of the Christmas rush, just a week and two days before the 25th) and get our decorating and present-buying done. Also, the family will be delighted to see the apartment get back into shape, after being entirely neglected for a week or more while I completed, for Megan's birthday, as large a project as I've ever undertaken.

Gramma gave Megan a beautiful doll last Christmas, which we decided is still new enough looking to last at least another year, before buying a new one. However, her clothes have been washed and ironed so many times that they are pretty well worn by now. Knowing that Megan was still fond of the doll and is reaching the age where she loves to dress and undress her dolls, I decided to sew some clothes for her.

TO LOOK at those tiny garments in the stores, you'd think that surely a couple of outfits could be made in a night, and for an experienced seamstress, this might be so. But, for the rank amateur of fairly normal intelligence, one night could easily be taken up just cutting and beginning to sew together the pieces of one little dress—take it from one rank amateur who knows!

Now, if it had only been a matter of one little dress, I'm sure I could have easily handled that, however, one dress could hardly be expected to take the place of a new doll. No, it would take several outfits and a little suitcase to do that.

WELL, THOUGH I finished the last dress around 3:00 a. m. the morning of her birthday, all my effort was well rewarded when I watched her delighted little face that morning, as she suddenly spied her dolly dressed in a gorgeous, glittering, white bridal dress and veil, with a white fur cape around her shoulders and a doll's silver evening bag over her arm. She actually didn't realize for a while that it was her old doll.

On the floor next to the doll was a little suitcase in which Megan excitedly found a pink and white lace trimmed dress, a white felt skirt and top decorated with a jeweled Christmas tree, a pink tulle ballet dress and shoes and a rosebud flannel night gown and robe set.

You see, I really outfitted the doll! It was a big job but lots of fun to do—it would have to be lots of fun to do or you wouldn't undertake it during the busiest time of the year.

Daddy, Bridget and I sang "Happy Birthday" several times while Megan opened other packages including a "Sparkle Art" set (what fun she has had with glue and glitter—a gift suggestion for any child 5 to 8 years old), a book containing the Manger scene, to be cut out, coloring book and crayons and paper dolls.

IT WAS A BUSY, busy day. Before kindergarten, we made a stop at Mrs. Conder's for the lovely Christmas tree cookies that she made for Megan to treat her classmates with (all I did was to call and ask if I could borrow her cookie cutter and she insisted on making the cookies!). In the afternoon, we entertained four little neighborhood girls with games, ice cream and cookies and a cartoon on our movie projector. In the evening, Gramma, Grampa and Mrs. Conder came for dinner.

Unusual among the gifts she received and good ideas if you still have some kiddies to buy presents for, were the Zimphone set—two phones over which you can talk from room to room and a precious record called "Sparky and the Magic Baton," in which the little boy "Sparky" learns about the various instruments to be found in a symphony orchestra.

We now look forward to another birthday—the birthday of a tiny Infant, who will be born again in the hearts of men to inspire them with the light of His Divine Love.

May you be blessed by His Love with good health and great happiness throughout all the new year.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

Gasping and panting as we get down to the wire, we are hoping that we will be ready for Christmas when we cross the finish line. By the time we get the out of town stuff wrapped in tinsel and then wrapped in its lovely drab brown and down to the post office, we are almost ready to call the whole thing off. Seems like we are getting a double dose. And too, the house looks so barren with all those packages gone, we start all over with our shopping.

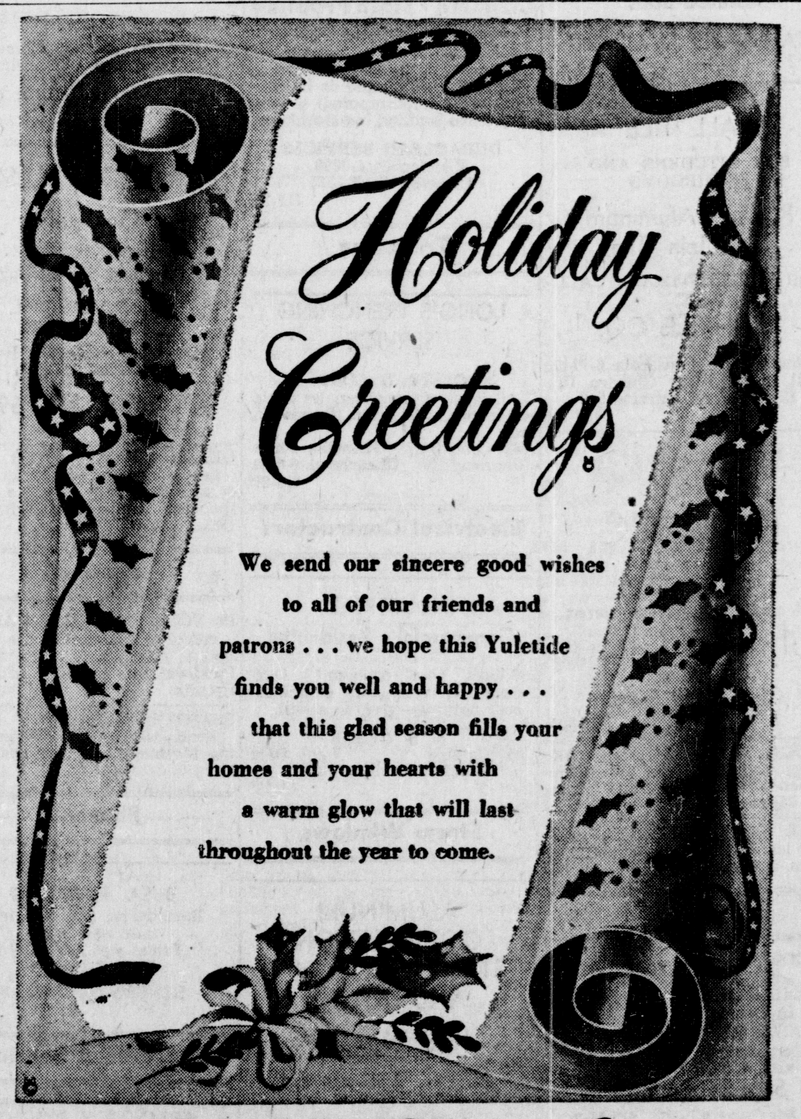

We are wondering why this trial of Dr. Sam has reached such a world-wide importance. It is just a matter of whether he did it or whether he didn't. It has gotten so that even our young come dashing in from school and after asking what's to eat, want to know the latest on the Dr. Some of the best reporters in the country are camped in Cleveland playing guessing games. We are willing to bet that they are having a hard time thinking up things to write.

According to the latest, of course I have no interest in the thing whatsoever, the reporter are having to resort to telling about the expressions on the jurors' faces as they file in and out of the courtroom. This makes pretty heady reading for the anxious public.

We have decided that we have the messiest Christmas tree in the town. We are believers in letting the young help trim the tree. Once we were visiting a family where mother and father trimmed the tree on Christmas eve. They even reserved the right to trim the tree on Christmas eve when the children were grown and married. We can still remember the longing to get our hands on some of that lovely stuff and hang it on the tree. No dice.

So, when the time came that we had a tree of our own, we did away with the belief that Santa did the work and let small hands do most of the work. Small hands just love doing it and the result is the greatest hodgepodge ever seen. Everyone has something she has made for the tree and everyone insists that all those chains, some dating back to infancy, go on the thing someplace. Then all through the holidays, small hands rearrange things as they drop off. The tree in our house is the busiest, the most lopsided, the fullest, and the most beautiful that we have ever seen.

At the risk of being maudlin, we wouldn't trade it for the cleverest tree pictured in House Beautiful. So there. And a very Merry Christmas to all of you from all of us.

Newsstand Of The Week

For five-and-one-half-years Mrs. Gertrude Martinek has been one of 62 dealers selling more than 18,000 copies of Paddock Publications every week.

Her restaurant, The Arctic Circle at Higgins and York rds., started out as a summer drive-in for ice cream. Soon customers were asking for coffee, then hamburgers, and now she has a full-fledged restaurant specializing in homemade soups, chicken, steaks, and hamburgers that are "home ground." They purchase pure beef and grind their own hamburger meat.

The rest of the Martinek family is nearby. Her husband, Sam, operates a Sinclair station adjacent to the restaurant, and their son, John, opened a repair shop next door several months ago. The daughters help out at the Circle.

Mrs. Martinek is an "around the clock" worker since her restaurant is open 24 hours a day. "I don't get much time to loaf, that's for sure," she smiled.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son, Kenneth Kleiner, who passed away 2 years ago Dec. 21, 1952.
Memories are treasures no one can steal;
Death is a heartache no one can heal.
Some may forget now that you are gone,
But we shall remember, no matter how long.
The call was short, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.

IN MEMORIAM

Frank—Herman: In memory of husband, our dad and grandfather, who passed away one year ago.
Softly the stars are shining upon a precious grave;
Beneath lies one we dearly loved, but whom we could not save.
Friends may think we have forgotten when at times they see us smile,
Little do they know the heartache that our smiles hide all the while.

To Dredge Salt Creek

Elmhurst's city council agreed last week to take action on a proposal to have Salt Creek cleared of debris from North Ave. to Butterfield rd.

Decision to clean out the creek is a part of a series of steps being taken by the city in an attempt to alleviate flood conditions in Elmhurst. The dredging will cost $1,200.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Just what is the proper rule concerning the removal of a man's hat in an elevator?

A. He removes his hat only in an elevator in a building where people live, such as a hotel or an apartment building. The elevators of office building and stores are rated as the street.

Q. If a man and girl are dining in a restaurant where there is dancing, and another man comes to the table and asks her to dance, is it proper for her to accept?

A. She should ask her escort, "Do you mind if I dance with Bill?" If he says he doesn't mind, she may dance with him a very short while, then return to her escort.

Q. When there is no one waiting on table and the serving dishes are passed from hand to hand, are they passed to the left or the right?

A. To the right, so that the person receives the dish in his left hand and helps himself with the right.

Q. What do you think of men using perfume or cologne. My husband refuses, but I think men can at least use cologne?

A. I am with your husband on this question. Shaving lotion that has a fresh, clean scent (not too strong) is for the "real man."

Q. When, after being seated at the dinner table, should one pick up one's napkin?

A. Immediately upon seating yourself, unfold your napkin and place it across your lap.

Q. Is it correct to wear earrings at any time, or should they be reserved only for certain occasions?

A. Small earrings can be worn anywhere and at any time. But the diamond type and long, dangling ones are best worn only with evening or dressy party frocks.

Q. What rule applies to the taking of second helpings at a dinner table?

A. Take a second helping if a dish is passed, but do not ask for it. Maybe the supply is depleted and you might embarrass your hostess.

Q. How does a woman introduce her son's wife to her friends?

A. The formal introduction to acquaintances is "My daughter-in-law," and to good friends, "Dick's wife."

Q. When a man and woman are leaving a railway train, should the woman go first?

A. The man should go first, and help the woman off the car steps.

National Sales Up

All-time highs in sales were recorded by National Tea Co. for the four-week period ended December 4.

Sales increased 13.49%, or $5,075, 357, to establish the new high of $42,693,487 for any four-week period in company history. Sales for the same period in 1953 were $37,618,130.

Sales for 1954 to December 4 totaled $477,355,592, an increase of 11.79% over 1953.

At the close of business on December 4, National was operating 715 stores in 10 mid-west states, compared with a total of 700 at the same time last year. (BB

Richest Man In The World Has A TV Set, But Lacks A Transmitter

by BILL DILLINGHAM

The richest man in the world has a TV set that doesn't show any programs!

The Sheik Abdala El Salam, the Sultan of Kuwait, in spirt of his riches lacks at least one form of entertainment available to anv simple American family. It seems that money isn't everything!

The Sultan receives visitors in a luxurious room that is covered by a rug so thick on might imagine walking on a haystack! The pride and joy of these plush surroundings is his TV set which sits high up on one side of the room.

EUROPEANS received by the Sultan must not be disappointed if their wives don't make too great an impression. The sheik is not one to let a woman turn his head. It is considered a degradation to speak to a lady in public. (The Sheik would have a rough time on the States!)

The Sultan of Kuwait carries a little powder box which contains an irritant used for making him sneeze. This is considered one of the deeper pleasures in life. (I agree with him!) A burp is a vocal communication which, when translated, means: "Good appetite," and which is quite popular among Arab people of better taste. (When questioned one time in England about this custom, about Arab morals, and especially about right and wrong, the Sheik answered wearily: "Geography never was my best subject at school.")

THE STREETS of this tiny settlement are quite modern. One sees few Europeans; mostly there are the covered faces of the nomadic people. Cadillac cars are all over the place (no other make seems to be expensive enough for Kuwait taste), and modern buildings are springing up like springtime flowers.

Kuwait has one great drawback, however. There is so much oil in the area that Allah forgot to supply water for human inhabitants. Every drop has to be distilled. Huge evaporators (I didn't say "distilleries") work night and day on making sea water suitable for human consumption.

The Sheik made a trip to Europe not too long ago and took in all of the best cafes and night clubs. Of all the things he saw, he claimed that television seemed the most miraculous. ("Allah is generous"). He brought one back with him and is starting plans for the construction of a transmitter so that he can use it.

Employees of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea company throughout the country will share more than $2,300,000 in pre-holiday compensation this year.

Every employee with as much as six months' service will receive a part of the annual fund voted by the company's board of directors. Distribution was scheduled for December 17. (BB

Jewel Sales Up

Jewel Tea Co., Inc. sales for the four weeks ended December 4, 1954 were 13.6% over a year ago. Sales in that period totaled $23.-264,367 or $2,786,287 more than in the same four weeks of 1953.

Accumulated sales for the forty-eight weeks nded December 4, 1954 totaled $252,590,481, a gain of 13.5% over sales of $222,572,-423 a year ago. (BB

Sales Manager

Arlington Heights resident, George A. Peak, has been appointed sales manager of the Chicago branch office of the Allstate Insurance company, 7401 Skokie Blvd., Skokie. In this capacity he will supervise sales operations in a 25-county area in Northern Illinois.

Peak, who with his wife, Lucille, and daughter Lynda, lives at 646 S. Vail, was sales promotion manager of the company's Chicago office prior to this appointment. He joined the Chicago branch as an agent in 1948. He was made assistant sales manager in 1950, and sales promotion manager in May, 1954.

Fine Arts Quartet

Chicago's fine arts quartet, one of the world's foremost chamber music groups, will give a weekly series of 13 concerts at Kimball Hall beginning Tuesday, January 4, at 8:30 p.m.

Each concert will be broadcast "live" from Kimball Hall by WFMT, Chicago's fine arts high fidelity FM station. The entire series is being sponsored by Allied Radio Corporation, the world's largest electronics distributor.

Reach Two-Thirds Of Christmas Seal Goal

A last-minute, pre-Christmas reminder came from the Tuberculosis Institute today, as the organization prepared for the official ending of the 1954 Christmas Seal sale.

"While receipts from the campaign neared the $500,000 mark at the end of last week, there are many people who have not yet sent in their Christmas Seal checks," explained John E. Egdorf, executive director of the institute.

"Our goal for the campaign was $750,000, the minimum amount with which we can carry out our tuberculosis control program at the rate necessary to the continued good health of the community.

Earns Award

Louis J. Richter, senior engineer at Cook Research Laboratories, division of Cook Electric company, Skokie, has been awarded "Certificate of Achievement" by Joint Task Force Seven.

This award is for meritorious service in supervising the installation of special aircraft instrumentation equipment in B-47 aircraft at Vandalia, Ohio, and also in the maintenance of the equipment in connection with atomic energy tests at Eniwetok-Bikini, Operation Castle 1954.

Richter lives at 534 West Glencoe ave., Palatine. (BB

Takes Hobby Course

Mrs. Frieda Schulte of 119 West Fremont, Palatine, is among recent graduates of a thirteen-week crafts course sponsored by the senior citizens hobby center.

The center, a project of the welfare council of metropolitan Chicago, affords older adults the opportunity of learning new skills while making friends with similar interests.

Mrs. Schulte qualified as a craft aide and received certificates entitling her to teach crafts to 'golden agers.'

A truck loaded with concrete blocks smashed into a pole Dec. 18 at 7 a. m. on Northwest hwy. near Wilke rd. The impact knocked down high-voltage electrical wires which started a fire in the car of Henry Frederichs, 131 S. Walnut, Arlington Heights. Police said he attempted to pass a line of traffic and skidded on the slippery pavement. The truck, driven by L. F. Busse of Arlington Concrete co., was forced to swerve off the road in order to avoid the Frederich's car. Both drivers escaped without injury, although it took Public Service co. several hours to repair the damaged wiring.

The Christmas rush at Palatine post office has been worse than usual with the three men, above, sorting the avalanche for the carriers. The staff has been able to keep up with the flood, but there are certain to be plenty of tired hands (and headaches) in Palatine by week's end.

Post office annex this year at Arlington Heights was the ex-service station building, next to Paddock Publications, which is included in Paddock plans for plant enlargement following the holidays. Part of the crew took 60 seconds off to pose for the photographer, then resumed their efforts to keep up with the holiday rush of mail.

Christmas television corner has its modern "customized" decoration of real roses and Christmas balls in candle receptacle. Red-berries and jack-pine complete the ensemble. New florists' product eliminates water while feeding moisture through the flower stems.

Presenting the colors at Friday night's West Suburban basketball opener at Arlington Heights high school was the job of the six girls shown above. The Cardinals went on to win both games, making the evening a worthwhile one. Left to right, Judy Weisenbach, Wanda Eakins, Alice Olson, Kay Christman, Pat Crossin, Bonnie Malchow.

Opening and sorting the bundles of Christmas mail is the job of these two persons at the Mt. Prospect post office. The pile of mail has been greater than ever, but extra employees have been helping the regular staff keep up with the flood. Shown, left to right, are Carlton Shaffer and Derwood Janssen. Mt. Prospect post office will close at noon Friday, to give employees time to do their Christmas shopping before Christmas eve.

Stonegate youngsters mobbed Santa Claus Monday night and the closest the photographer could get was just to get in the top of his head, inside circle. Children and parents met at the triangle park at Drury, Strafford and Mayfair, where the annual Christmas party of the Stonegate association was held. Thee was music and caroling by the large lighted tree. Santa talked to each youngster and gave him a gift.
